

Weber and Willard Wed In Double Ring Ceremony

Susan Whitney Willard and Bradley Harwood Weber were married Oct. 6 at 12 noon at First Baptist Church in Greensboro. Dr. John Seitchfield officiated the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Margaret and Howard Willard of Ocean Isle Beach and Greensboro. The groom is the son of Sally and Larry Weber of Pittsburgh, Pa.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a white satin and re-embroidered Alencon lace gown with a V-neck and deep V back. It featured a fitted bodice and long, tapered sleeves with puffs of lace. The full satin skirt formed a cathedral length train, which was bordered with Alencon lace.

Her shoulder length veil of silk illusion was attached to circlets of lace and sequins worn as a back headpiece.

She carried a cascade of rubrum lilies, white roses and babies' breath.

The bride's sister, Janet Willard Holbrook, served as matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Linda Willard, sister of the bride; Beth Collins; Lori Armstrong, sister of the groom; Cheri Lugo; and Debbie Willard and Vivian Willard, sisters-in-law of the bride.

The attendants wore gowns of black lace and taffeta, with a fitted bodice, asymmetrical waist and V-back, with short lace sleeves and a full taffeta skirt with high-low hem.

The bride's niece, Carolina Willard, was flower girl.

The groom chose his brother, Jeffrey Todd Weber, as best man. Ushers were Ken Armstrong; Ernie

Viers; Cowan Griffin; Steven Holbrook, Michael Nichols; and Randy Willard and Frank Willard, brothers of the bride.

Music was provided by Billy Summers, organist; and Elaine Summers, vocalist.

Following the ceremony a brunch was held at Cardinal Country Club.

After a honeymoon in St. Marten, the newlyweds will reside in Columbia, S.C.

The bride is a graduate of Greensboro Day School and King's College. The bridegroom is a graduate of Charlotte Christian School and the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

GOP Sets Dinner, Seeking Volunteers

The Brunswick County Republican Party will hold the latest in a series of "meet the candidate" dinners Friday, Oct. 19, starting at 6 p.m. at the Lockwood Folly Community Building.

The building is on Stanbury Road off Holden Beach Road (N.C. 130).

GOP candidates in the upcoming general election will present their platforms and discuss the issues with voters.

While there is no charge for the barbecue dinners that will be served, the party will collect donations to support the candidates' campaigns, said Robert Maultsby, spokesman. More information is available from him at 253-6546.

The Brunswick County Republican Party is also seeking volunteers to staff telephones and GOP Headquarters for the upcoming election, said Party Chairman Malcolm Grissett.

Persons willing to donate time are asked to contact Grissett at 579-6599 or Millie Murrow at 278-5824.

Slates Festival

Lincoln Primary School PTO in Leland will hold its annual fall festival Thursday, Oct. 25, from 5 p.m. to 9 p.m. in the school gymnasium.

"The next day is a teacher work-day," said Phyllis Neeley, "so the children can sleep late in the morning."

The festival will be a family affair, offering hot dogs, drinks, baked goods, a cake walk, face painting and other booths featuring fun and games, she said. Tickets are 20 cents each.

Proceeds will go toward purchase of supplemental materials and equipment.
