CEDAR GROVE AREA NEWS

Revivals Still In Progress

BY BARBARA T. HEWETT

Revivals are in progress at two or more Ocean View member churches.

Services began Oct. 15 at St. James of Bolivia and Pleasant Grove of Thomasboro. Evangelists are the Rev. Charles Jacob and the Rev. John Keel respectively. Host pastors are the Rev. Ronnie McCrae and the Rev. Samuel Stanley, who invite the public to attend.

Harvest Continues

The Cedar Grove Missionary Baptist Church family will remember this fall for some time to come. Two youths joined the church family in September. This month a third person has decided to come into the fold—Zion Leo Hewett, husband of Rosie Lee Hewett and father of Leberdia Fullwood, Katha Mae Bellamy and Carrie Galloway. Oh how the church rejoices.

"I just made up my mind not to go on the way I was going any longer," he told me for this column. "I am glad about it and don't want to hide it."

Birthday Greetings

Happy birthday to Carolyn Williams, Jake McQueen, Shandra Walker, Henry Avance Hickman, Etta Hewett, Florence Nicholson, Raymond Greene, Cameron Hankins, the Rev. Freeman Gause, Jamie Williams and Alton Johnson.

Weekly Scripture

The Scripture of the week comes from Galatians 5, "But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, long-suffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness, temperance. Against such there is no law. And they that are Christ's have crucified the flesh with affections and lusts. If we live in the Spirit, let us not be desirous of vain glory, provoking one another, envying one another."

TRAVEL TREK
by
Elsa Jardine
In a manner reminiscent of supermarket and department store sales, the airlines are offering some specials to certain domestic and international destinations. The domestic fares are good through May and international fares until early March.
If you are planning flying anywhere in the next couple of months, it might be a good idea to check now and see what the rates are. The international fares from the N.C. gateways of Charlotte and Raleigh are especially good buys. Although you can travel from November 1 through to the first week in March, most of the tickets have to be purchased by October 31.
Domestically, now is the time to purchase tickets for Thanksgiving or Christmas travel. There is some availability still and good fares to such cities as Chicago, New York and Los Angeles. Although most of the media is focusing on the probable rise in air fare prices due to the Middle East crisis, most of the airlines will be pursuing their "sale" mentality as they try to balance the problems of cost and load factor. What this means to the consumer is a series of air fare quick sales, here one week and gone the next. In order to take advantage of the bargains, keep in touch with a good travel agent who is constantly monitoring the very volatile air fare situation.
Here at Brunswick travel we can give you all the latest air fare fluctuations through our SABRE automated travel system. We do not charge a fee for our services. So call or stop in today and meet our expert staff of travel consultants.
