Quick Dishes Use Leftover Turkey

Between Thanksgiving Day and New Year's Day most households have an abundant supply of turkey on hand.

Aside from the usual sandwiches, there are plenty of simple and nutritious ways to "recycle" leftover bird. For starters, try these recipes offered by extension foods and nutrition specialists at N.C. State University.

Use yogurt instead of mayonnaise in the turkey salads to cut back on fat and calories.

TURKEY-FRUIT SALAD
2 C. diced cooked turkey or chicken
2 apples, diced
1 C. drained pineapple chunks
3 T. vanilla low-fat yogurt
3/4 tsp. curry powder
1/4 C. chopped nuts, optional
Toss all ingredients together and chill. Yields six servings and has approximately 170 calories per serving without nuts.

TURKEY-VEGETABLE SALAD
2 C. diced cooked turkey or chicken
1/2 C. diced celery
1/4 C. diced green pepper, optional
1/4 C. chopped onion
1/4 C. mayonnaise or yogurt
Toss ingredients together. Makes four to five servings.

BRUNSWICK STEW
1 T. fat or oil
1 medium onion
2 C. liquid from cooked turkey or chicken
2 C. cut-up cooked, boned turkey or chicken
2 C. cooked or canned tomatoes
2 C. cooked or canned whole corn
2 C. cooked or canned lima beans (1-lb. can)
Cook onion in fat until tender. Add rest of ingredients. Heat and serve.

Each received a six-foot-tall trophy, a crown, banner, crown pin and $100 savings bond at the Oct. 27 event at Shallotte Middle School, said Sarah Farmer.

Contestants from ages birth to 25 competed in nine divisions in categories of beauty, sportswear, most photogenic, prettiest smile and personality.

Age division winners were Baby Miss Tiffany Nicole Brown, birth-12 months; Tiny Miss Amber Bennett (13 months-2 years); Wee Miss Ashley Johnson (3-4 years); Little Miss Danielle Patterson (5-6 years); Junior Miss Melissa White (7-9 years); Pre-teen Miss Jennifer Stanley (10-12 years); Teen Miss Lori Causey (13-15 years); Miss Brunswick Islands Anna Varnam (19 and older); and Mrs. Brunswick Islands Shannon Casola.

The winners will have an opportunity next year to compete in the Little Miss North Carolina Pageant and the Americas Majestic National Pageant.

Registration is $20, to be paid at the first class meeting. No registration fee is charged North Carolina residents age 65 and older.

The class is offered through the Brunswick Community College Department of Continuing Education. More information is available from either the college, 754-6900, or the instructor, Terry Sellers, at the gallery, 754-7919.

Southport School Holds Math Night

More than 300 parents joined their first- and second-grade children for Family Fun Math Night last Thursday at South Elementary School.

The purpose of the event was to show parents that math, best learned using manipulatives, can be fun, according to Brunswick County Schools spokesperson Gloria Yount.

Children and parents played math games including penny toss, bears and bow ties, slide it, pattern block puzzles and pyramid 13. First-grade teacher Carol Midgett coordinated the program.

Bob Jones, chief consultant in the mathematics division of the N.C. Department of Public Instruction, attended the special event.

Happy Birthday to Ashley Suzanne Hewett who will be three years old Dec. 1st. She is the daughter of Houston and Suzanne Hewett of Supply, and the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rob Hewett and Mr. and Mrs. Audy Phelps.
