Cougars, Trojans Dominate All-Brunswick County Football Team

BY JOHNNY CRAIG

Eight returning players and 14 members from the county champion South Brunswick team highlight the 1990 All-Brunswick County high school football team announced this week following the conclusion of the local prep season.

West Brunswick running back Aldwin Lance and South Brunswick quarterback Todd Vice headed the 27-player list, being named co-players of the year after superb junior seasons.

Lance, a 5-foot-7, 162-pound junior running back/defensive back, led the county and Waccamaw 2-A Conference in rushing this fall with 1,270 yards on 191 carries (6.6 yards-per-carry average). He also caught three passes for another 18 yards and completed one of two passes for 48 yards.

Lance, a two-time all-county selection, also led the team in pass interceptions (6) while being a spot starter at free safety in the Trojan defensive backfield.

Vice threw for 1,167 yards this fall while setting all career South Brunswick passing records. The 6-1, 175-pounder completed 64 of 149 passes (43 percent) while throwing 10 touchdown strikes and only six interceptions.

Vice ran for another 274 yards and intercepted two passes while also starting in the Cougar defensive secondary.

The two-time, all-county selection was named to the team a year ago as a defensive back. Vice's passing and scrambling helped lead the Cougars to the state playoffs for only the second time in South Brunswick history. He averaged just over 100 yards passing per contest in guiding South to its first county championship in three years.

Other two-time, all-county selections include West Brunswick's Timmy Clemmons, Aaron Butler, Alton Johnson, Daniel Russ and Lonnie Mitchell and South Brunswick's Mike Cole.

Clemmons (5-7, 192, sr.), named as an offensive guard, was a two-way starter for the Trojans also playing at defensive tackle.

Butler (5-9, 172, so.) was named to the squad as a running back after being selected to the 1989 all-county team as a defensive lineman. Butler was the Trojans' second-leading rusher with 294 yards on 56 carries (5.3 yards-per-carry average) while also seeing playing time in the defensive secondary.

Johnson, a 5-7, 258-pound senior, was selected to the team as an offensive guard after being named to the 1989 squad as a defensive lineman. Johnson also saw action on the Trojan defensive line this fall while also being the team's reserve kicker.

Russ, a 6-3, 190-pound junior, was selected as a linebacker to the all-BC team for the second straight year. Russ also saw playing time at tight end for the Trojans this fall catching four passes for 43 yards.

Mitchell, a 6-4, 192-pound sophomore, was named as a defensive end for the second consecutive year.

CONGRATULATING EACH OTHER are Aldwin Lance (left), Brunswick County Co-Player of the Year and Bill Hewett (right), Coach of the Year. Lance ran for over 1,200 yards for West Brunswick this season while Hewett, in his first year at South, guided the Cougars into the state playoffs for only the second time in school history.

The talented student/athlete also plays on the Trojan basketball team and also plans to play tennis in the spring.

Cole, a 6-3, 220-pound senior, was named as a center for a second straight time. Cole is also a member of the Cougar basketball team.

West Brunswick players named to the team for the first time include wide receiver Jim Grissett, offensive tackle Tony Caison, defensive linemen Charles Thorpe and George Daniels, punter Bryan Fleming, linebacker Jeff Letino and defensive end Jerry Reeves.

Grissett, a 5-11, 150-pound junior, was the Trojans' leading receiver this fall with 18 receptions for 198 yards. He also saw some action at a defensive end spot as well.

Caison, a 6-3, 272-pound junior, was named to the all-BC squad as an offensive tackle but saw action as a defensive guard also for the Trojans this season.

Thorpe, a 6-foot, 198-pound senior, was selected as a defensive tackle while also playing center for the Trojans as well this season.

Daniels, a 6-1, 272-pound junior, was named to the team as a defensive guard but also played on the offensive line. Daniels is also a pitcher on the Trojan and American Legion Post 68 baseball teams.

Fleming, a 5-11, 188-pound sophomore, was selected as a punter on the all-county team but played as many as three different positions this season for the Trojans.

Fleming averaged 33.3 yards per punt while also starting as a linebacker on defense and a full-back in the offensive backfield in the second half of the season.

Letino, a 6-0, 200-pound senior, overcame a preseason foot injury to work his way back into the Trojan starting lineup by midseason. In addition to his linebacking duties, Letino also saw some action as a fullback in the West Brunswick offensive backfield.

Reeves, a 6-3, 170-pound junior, was named to the all-BC squad as a defensive end while also seeing limited action as a Trojan tight end. Reeves is also a returning letterman on the West basketball team.

Rounding out the South Brunswick selections were Gregg Williams, Keith Burke, Corey Brown, Mike Davis, Sebastian Pigott, Robbie Johnson, Horace McGriff, Ernie Wearren, Terry Tolley, Alvin Hewett and Gary Nowell.

Williams, a 6-3, 180-pound senior, was selected as a wide receiver after finishing as the Cougars' second-leading pass catcher with over 300 yards in receptions.

Burke, a 6-0, 170-pound junior, was named to the elite team as an offensive lineman but saw action for the Cougars as a defensive end as well.

Brown, a 5-11, 170-pound sophomore, was selected as a running back after leading the Cougars in rushing as a fullback in his first varsity season.

Davis, a 5-11, 170-pound senior, was selected to the team as a wide receiver after leading the Cougar receiving corps with over 400 yards in receptions. The two-way starter for the Cougars also saw playing time as a defensive back.

Three Cougars were selected at defensive line positions including Pigott, a 6-2, 245-pound senior tackle; Johnson, a 5-11, 230-pound senior nose guard; and McGriff, a 6-3, 240-pound senior end.

CO-PLAYERS OF THE YEAR

Aldwin Lance (West Brunswick), Todd Vice (South Brunswick)
COACH OF THE YEAR—Bill Hewett (South Brunswick)

Wearren, a 5-9, 165-pound senior, was named to the defensive backfield of the all-BC team. Wearren also started as a flanker for the Cougars as well.

Two Cougar linebackers were also named to the team including Tolley, a 6-0, 175-pound senior, and Hewett, a 6-foot, 180-pound junior.

Nowell (5-10, 160, jr.) was selected as the team's kicker after handling all kickoff, extra point and field goal duties for the Cougars for the second year.

Defensive back Greg Waddell (155, sr.) was the lone selection from North Brunswick. Waddell was a two-way starter for the Scorpions (0-10) this fall playing both receiver, defensive end and defensive back.

Hewett, in his first year as head coach at South, guided the Cougars to their best grid season (6-5) since 1986 and the county grid title. The veteran high school coach came to South Brunswick after a successful six-year stint at Whiteville where he compiled a 69-11 record highlighted by the Wolfpack's 1987 state 2-A championship.

Selection of the 1990 All-Brunswick County football team is a production of The Brunswick Beacon and State Port Pilot sports departments.
