MRS. CHRISTOPHER LAVON KING
...Mary Yolanda Barlongo

Barlongo, King Exchange Vows

Mary Yolanda Barlongo and Christopher LaVon King were married Tuesday, Dec. 11, at 7 p.m. in Town Creek Baptist Church, Leland.

The Rev. V.C. Potter Jr. officiated the double ring ceremony. Music was provided by June Beasley, pianist, and Carolyn Young, soloist.

The bride is the daughter of Walter Jervie and Mary O. Babson of Winnabow.

The groom is the son of Vonnie and Ruby King of Southport.

Given in marriage by her parents, the bride was escorted by her father. She wore a formal white satin gown that featured a fitted bodice with sweetheart neckline. Bodice and skirt were detailed in alencon lace and hand-beaded with pearls and iridescent sequins. The basque waistline was accented with a satin bow at the back panel and continued into a cathedral train, which was appliqued with Alencon lace.

Her elbow-length veil was attached to a band of white flowers and clustered pearls. Veil and gown were fashioned by Shirley Cumbee of Winnabow.

The bride carried a bouquet of red and white roses and Christmas greenery, centered with an orchid. Joellen Best of Ayden served as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Lori Bryant of Leland, Linda Creech of Bolton and Ruby Hodge of Southport, cousin of the groom.

They wore red satin tea-length dresses by Alfred Angelo.

Flower girls were Jennifer Hodge of Southport and Kayla Bryant of Leland. Abram Young of Leland served as ring bearer.

The groom chose Clay Evans of Southport as his best man. Grooms-men were Charles Babson of Winnabow and John Babson of Wilmington, brothers of the bride, and Mitchell Lanier of Leland.

Cheryl Maultsby of Leland directed the wedding.

A special wedding guest from out of town was the bride's grandmother, Frances Booth.

Immediately after the ceremony, the bride's family hosted a reception in the church fellowship hall.

The bride is a graduate of South Brunswick High School and attended Cape Fear Community College.

The groom is a graduate of South Brunswick High School and is serving in the U.S. Air Force at Cannon Air Force Base, Clovis, N.M.

After a wedding trip to the mountains of Tennessee the couple will reside in Clovis.

MR. AND MRS. GARY WAYNE CLEMMONS
...Tara Lynn Futch

Futch, Clemmons Vows Spoken

Tara Lynn Futch and Gary Wayne Clemmons, both of Supply, were married Sunday, Nov. 18, at 4 p.m. at the home of the bridegroom.

The Rev. Russell Hewitt, pastor of Oak Grove Baptist Church, officiated the ceremony.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Harold Futch of Supply.

She wore a blue lace over taffeta floor-length gown and carried a bouquet of peach roses and orange tiger lilies. Her hair was decorated with sprays of babies' breath.

Her honor attendant was Cathy Carlisle of Shallotte Point, who wore a tea-length dress of blue and gray with a lace collar. She carried a bouquet of pink, white and blue roses with pink streamers.

Crystal Todd of Ocean Isle served as flower girl. She wore a baby blue dress with lace collar. She carried a white basket of potpourri, which she sprinkled in the path of the bridal couple.

The groom chose his father, Levy Clemmons of Supply, as his best man.

Music was provided by Kim Clemmons of Supply, who played The Wedding March.

The home was decorated with magnolia leaves, white bows and wedding bells.

Immediately after the ceremony, a reception was held, also at the home of the groom.

The newlyweds are making their home at Shallotte Point.
