WEST BRUNSWICK HIGH teammates Greg Yeager, John Cook, Terry Nawara and Jeremy Hewett confer Saturday before answering a 30-point question in competition with South Brunswick High School.

West Pulls From Behind To Keep Quiz Bowl Title

BY SUSAN USHER

West Brunswick High School surged from behind Saturday afternoon to defeat South Brunswick High School and retain the Brunswick County Quiz Bowl Championship for another year.

The Brunswick County Quiz Bowl was held at Brunswick Community College before an audience of about 50 people. Teams from North, South and West Brunswick high schools competed.

South Brunswick High had defeated North Brunswick 130-30 and again 60-10 after losing to West 65-20 in double-elimination play.

But South defeated West Brunswick 55-45 in Game 4, forcing the bowl into a higher-scoring fifth and final match won by West 150-110. West took home the rotating trophy, while all three teams received Quiz Bowl T-shirts.

West Brunswick's team will advance to the 1991 District Quiz Bowl March 23 in New Hanover County. Sponsored by Jim Price, school media specialist, the team consists of John Cook, Rodrick Gause, Jeremy Hewett, Terry Nawara, Phillip Rhodes, Ben Robinson, Tim Palmer and Greg Yeager.

In Quiz Bowl competition students answer questions of varying difficult about math, history, English, science, literature, geography, current events and languages. Firstround questions are worth 10 points; second-round questions, 20 points; and third-round questions, 30 points. Teams can confer briefly before one member answers a 30point question; in other rounds, teammates take turns answering questions individually.

In Saturday's opening game, North and South missed the capital of Tennessee (Nashville); the date of elections in Haiti (Dec. 16); and the new minimum wage that goes into effect in 1991 ($4.25). But teammates did know a gymnasium, adenoids and a period as a cycle in physics.

Neither West nor South teammates knew the location of the Falklands, with West's respondent suggesting off Chili and South's, off Ireland. But West's players knew the aardvark; South's, the United Arab Emirates; and North, the Whiskey Rebellion.

The names of Andrew Carnegie, John Muir and Horace Mann were unfamiliar, as were the works of Keats and Cooper and the order founded by St. Francis of Assisi (Franciscan).

Neither South nor North's respondents knew "Catfish" Hunter's hometown of Hertford or Knute Rockne's alma mater of Notre Dame or the number of gallons (42 U.S.) in a barrel of oil. Players also didn't know about black groundbreakers Jackie Robinson in baseball or Marion Anderson in opera. They did know about such things as the Rosetta Stone, the chemical make-up of nitrogen and that in football, "QB" stands for quarterback.

Competing for South Brunswick High School, coached by Mabel Calloway, were Teresa Butler, Ronald Brown, Santino McLaughlin, John Midgette, Kyle Monday, Anthony Justice, Ritchie Truell and Mike Wescott.

From North Brunswick High School, sponsored by JoAnn Absi and Fred Baldwin, were Tracey Hamby, Tracey Henry, Tabbi King, George Kelley, Tim Kelly, Gary Martin, Susan Nance and Jim Rossiter.

Quiz Bowl is sponsored by the Brunswick County Library in cooperation with the Brunswick County Schools and with the support of the Brunswick County Parks and Recreation Department and Brunswick County and West Brunswick Branch Friends of the Library. The bowl was coordinated by Felecia Hardy of the library staff.

Marybeth Bianchi, feature editor of The State Port Pilot, served as moderator. Judges were Bob Maker and Louise Potente; Quiz Bowl authority was Doris Wilson. Nancy Price assisted with rotation; Charlotte Hart and Nancy Potente kept score and Emma Myles kept time. Matilda Suggs and Francis Wertz handled registration.
