Weinstein Gets Merit Award In Azalea Festival Art Show

Emily Weinstein of Holden Beach received a merit award in the Azalea Festival Art Show in Wilmington for her shadow box in oils and mixed media, "Don't Turn Around—He Just Walked In."

Miss Weinstein is Visiting Artist this year at Brunswick Community College. She was among about 90 area artists to participate in the show at St. Thomas Preservation Hall, which was sponsored by the Wilmington Art Association.

Speight Honored

North Brunswick High School sophomore Charlie Speight was honored by the Brunswick County Board of Commissioners Monday night.

Speight, the youngest person ever elected as president of the N.C. Association of Distributive Education Clubs of America (DECA), received a resolution from the board recognizing his academic achievements and leadership skills.

He served as vice president of the state association as a freshman last year.

Brunswick County has 110 DECA members and will send six students and two teachers to the national conference this year, said Speight, who told commissioners that education in Brunswick County isn't as bad as often reported.

"Every day, at school, I see so many successes," Speight said.

Completes Course

Pvt. Bradley W. Anderson Jr. has completed the basic field artillery cannoner course at Fort Sill, Okla.

During the course, students were taught the duties of howitzer or gun section crewman. They also received instruction in communications, maintenance and the handling of ammunition and explosives.

Anderson is the son of Brad and Pat Anderson of Leland and the grandson of Buddy and Jane Anderson of North Myrtle Beach, S.C.

Completes Training

Navy Seaman Recruit Mark A. Taylor, son of Bruce E. Taylor of Route 5 (Pier 1), Shallotte, has completed recruit training at Recruit Training Command, Orlando, Fla. During the eight-week cycle, he studied general military subjects such as seamanship, close order drill, Naval history and first aid.

Taylor joined the Navy in December 1990.

Makes Honor Roll

Kimberly Anne Baxley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Baxley of Shallotte, has been named to the third quarter honor roll at Salem Academy.

Miss Baxley is a junior at Salem Academy, a four-year college preparatory school for girls located in Winston-Salem.

Mims Selected

West Brunswick High School has chosen Billy Mims as employee of the month for April. Mims teaches physical education, coaches the varsity basketball team and organizes the annual UNC Seniors All-Star Basketball Game.

Mims began his teaching career in Jacksonville, Fla., where he taught for six years. He moved to Shallotte in 1988.

During his 10 years in education, Mims has taught mathematics, English, economics and physical education.

Rabies Clinic Offers Shots

Area veterinarians will return to the road this Saturday to offer rabies shots to cats and dogs for county pet owners at 12 locations.

By state law, cats and dogs four months or older are required to be vaccinated against rabies.

Sponsored by the Brunswick County Health Department in conjunction with local veterinarians, the clinic offers rabies shots for $5 each. Distemper and Parvo shots will also be available.

These are the times and locations for the April 20 clinic:

Turtle Groups Set Meetings

Brunswick County Turtle Watch and the Holden Beach Turtle Patrol have scheduled informational meetings during the coming week to prepare volunteers for the 1991 sea turtle laying and hatching season.

The county meeting is scheduled Saturday, April 20, from 9 a.m. to 11 a.m. at the Public Assembly Building in Bolivia.

Guest speaker will be David Webster, marine biologist from the University of North Carolina at Wilmington. An N.C. Wildlife Resources Commission representative will discuss federal and state regulations on sea turtles.

The Holden Beach group will hold its first meeting of the year

Thursday, April 25, at 7 p.m. in the town hall.

Gail Miller, marine science educator with the N.C. Aquarium, and Jim Bahen, marine advisory agent with the U.N.C. Sea Grant Program, will be the guest speakers.

People who attend the meeting will receive information on state and county sea turtle preservation policies, patrol organization, loggerhead turtle biology and turtle excluder devices.

For more information, call Tina Pritchard at the Brunswick County Parks and Recreation Department, 253-4357, or Rick Bryan at Holden Beach, 842-7242.

Girl Scouts Meet At Seaside

Past and present Girl Scouts will be gathering at the Food Lion in Seaside this weekend to share their scouting experiences.

Scouts will meet at the grocery store this Saturday from 1 p.m. until 4 p.m. Former scouts will be asked to sign a guest book and place a dot on a world map showing where they became involved in scouting.

The purpose of the "Supermarket for Volunteers" is to recognize present and past Girl Scouts in eastern North Carolina, said local Girl Scouts spokesperson Vickie Poole.

The program coincides with National Volunteer Week (April 21-27) and the Girl Scout's annual appreciation day for volunteer leaders.

The 10th annual observance of Girl Scout Leader's Day will be Monday, April 22. Thousands of women and men nationwide will be honored for their voluntary contributions to Girl Scouting.

To celebrate the day, Mrs. Poole said Girl Scouts and their families often present troop leaders with homemade gifts and cards.

More than 750,000 Girl Scout adults serve 2.4 million girls in the United States. The Girl Scout Council of Coastal Carolina serves 13,000 girls in 25 eastern North Carolina counties and including Brunswick.

For more information, call Sandy Wilson at 842-5341.

Seven Chosen For Governor's School

Seven Brunswick County high school students have been selected to attend Governor's School this summer to study in the fields of mathematics, natural science, choral music and dance.

Three of the students will attend Governor's School West at Salem College in Winston-Salem, said Mary Wolf, director of pupil personnel services with Brunswick County Schools.

The other four students will attend the eastern school at St. Andrews College in Laurinburg. Both schools will run June 23 through Aug. 3.

Students who will attend the western school are Perty Dion Grisett, a 10th-grader at West Brunwick who will study natural science; Ronald Glenn Brown, 10th, South Brunswick, natural science; and Malik James Flamer, 11th, North Brunswick, mathematics.

Area students chosen for the eastern school are Jason Keith Lanier, 10th, South Brunswick, choral music; Karen Elaine Blackmon, 10th, South Brunswick, dance; Charlie Edward Speight, 10th, North Brunswick, mathematics; and Terri Antoinette Smith, 11th, South Brunswick, natural science.

Ms. Wolf said each school and each county in the state nominates students for Governor's School based on test scores, grades and recommendations. A Governor's School Committee makes the final selections.

Notary Class Offered April 23-24

A course for persons who are interested in becoming a notary public will be offered Tuesday and Wednesday, April 23 and 24 at Brunswick Community College.

Brunswick County Tax Administrator Boyd Williamson will teach the class from 6 p.m. to 9 p.m. each day. The class will meet in the teaching auditorium of the ALS

Building at BCC's main campus on U.S. 17 north of Supply. A $25 fee is payable to BCC at the first class meeting. Students may also purchase a workbook needed for the class from the instructor. The cost is $5.

For more information contact BCC's Continuing Education Department.

Patrolman Charges Driver For Not Reporting Wreck

A Southport man was charged with driving left of center and failing to report an accident after the Mercedes Benz which he was driving ran off the road and struck some trees.

Ioannis Vogiatzis, 33, was traveling east on N.C. 211 about seven miles southeast of Bolivia around 5:15 a.m. last Thursday when the accident occurred, reported State Trooper T.W. Caulder.

Caulder said Vogiatzis ran off the road on the right shoulder, crossed back to the left shoulder, crossed a ditch and struck some small trees.

The driver, who was not injured, left the scene but was contacted later, Caulder said.

Damage was listed at $3,000 to the car.

In another accident Saturday morning, a Bolivia woman says she was forced off the road by a white pickup truck, causing her car to overturn in a ditch about three miles north of Bolivia on U.S. 17.

Christine Lynn Newman, 23, was traveling on U.S. 17 when the 1990 Hyundai she was driving ran off the road on the right, came back onto the road, struck a ditchbank and overturned, reported State Trooper D.A. Lewis.

The car came to rest upside down in the ditch. Ms. Newman stated she was forced off the road by a truck, said Lewis, who did not file charges.

Although the driver was not injured, two passengers received minor injuries. Britany Marshall, 5, and Skyler Randolph, 4, were taken to The Brunswick Hospital in Supply following the 10:30 a.m. accident.

Damage was estimated at $12,000 to the car.

In another single-car accident early Saturday, a Camp Lejeune man was charged with exceeding a safe speed after the car he was driving ran off the road and overturned.

Terrance Chevene Johnson, 27, was traveling south on U.S. 17 about 5 miles south of Shallotte when the accident occurred around 7:30 a.m., Caulder reported.

According to the report, Johnson pulled from behind another car to pass but swerved back into his lane when he saw another car approaching. His 1989 Subaru ran off the road, overturned once and came to rest upright in a ditch, Caulder reported.

Johnson received Class B injuries, incapacitating but not serious, and was taken to The Brunswick Hospital for treatment.

Three passengers, Charles Wilson, 21, Corey Hawkins, 20, and Darren Darbey, 20, each received minor injuries but were not taken to the hospital.

Damage was listed at $6,000 to the car.
