

Deaths And Funerals

RAYMOND E. BELLAMY

Raymond E. Bellamy of Shallotte died April 30 after a lengthy illness. He was 96. He was a retired carpenter and former business and community leader.

The funeral was to be held 3 p.m. today (Thursday, May 2) at Calvary Baptist Church, with the Rev. John Landers, the Rev. Bill Greer and the Rev. Stan Smith officiating. Burial was planned in Sabbath Home Baptist Church Cemetery near Holden Beach.

The family was to receive visitors at Brunswick Funeral Service Wednesday, May 1, from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m. Born Dec. 2, 1894, he was the son of William Ellis and Caldonia Phelps Bellamy. He founded R.E. Bellamy & Sons of Shallotte in 1939. A carpenter by trade, he was responsible for construction of the first consolidated school in Brunswick County. Bellamy was a lifelong Democrat and served two terms as a Brunswick County commissioner. He was a charter member and honorary deacon of Calvary Baptist Church in Shallotte.

Survivors include his wife, Rosie F. Bellamy of Shallotte; two sons, Norman C. Bellamy of Supply and R.E. Bellamy Jr. of Shallotte; five daughters, Mrs. Wilbur (Clara) Holden, Evyleene Reaves, Mrs. Roney (Leona) Cheers, and Mrs. Billy (Ophelia) Gaither, all of Shallotte, and Mrs. H.D. (Margaret) Parrish of Supply; a daughter-in-law, Earline (Pet) Bellamy; 27 grandchildren; 54 great-grandchildren; and nine great-great-grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by a son, Palmer A. Bellamy; a daughter-in-law, Iona Hewett Bellamy; a son-in-law, Paul M. Reaves; and four grandchildren.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the building fund at Calvary Baptist Church, Village Road, Shallotte.

JAMES EDWARD LEWIS SR.

James Edward Lewis Sr. of Carolina Beach died April 26 at his residence.

The funeral was April 29 at Andrews Market Street Chapel, Wilmington, with burial in Greenlawn Memorial Park.

Born in Clarkton on March 12, 1922, he was the son of Margaret Elizabeth Reynolds of Leland and the late Henry Thomas Lewis.

He had retired in 1982 as roadmaster with Seaboard Coast Line Railroad and was a member of the Railroaders Old Timers Club. He also was a member of Woodburn Presbyterian Church.

Survivors in addition to his mother include his wife, Gladys Perry Lewis of Wilmington; two sons, J.E. Lewis Jr. and Van Carroll Lewis of Wilmington; a brother, Paul W. Lewis of Castle Hayne; eight sisters, Alverta Robbins, Dorothy Heath, Mildred Williamson, Wilma St. John, Virginia Mills and Barbara Sellers, all of Leland; Nancy Fox of Fairmont, Ind.; and LaNell Bland of Kinston. He is also survived by six grandchildren.

Memorials may be made to the Boys and Girls Home of Lake Waccamaw.

ALBERT ARNO BOEHME

Albert Arno Boehme of Holden Beach died April 25 in New Hanover Regional Medical Center, Wilmington.

A memorial service was to be conducted at 11 a.m. May 1 at the Chapel By The Sea, Holden Beach, with Elder Wycuff Skipper officiating. Entombment was to be in Arlington National Cemetery.

Boehme was a native of Geneva, Idaho. While serving in the submarine service of the U.S. Navy during World War II, he was awarded the Bronze Star.

Survivors include his wife, Edna W. Boehme of the home; a son, William Boehme of Salem, N.H.; three daughters, Diane Albert of Phoenix, Ariz., Anita Boehme of Methuen, Mass., and Lorraine Hansen of Wilmington, Del.; and four grandchildren.

DORIS LEE FLOWERS MARTIN

Doris Lee Flowers Martin, 56, of

Charlotte and formerly of Robeson County, died April 28 in Mercy Hospital, Charlotte, following an extended illness.

The funeral was to be at 3 p.m. today (Thursday) at Biggs Funeral Chapel, with the Rev. C.J. Bordeaux officiating. Burial was to be in New Hollywood Cemetery.

Survivors include her husband, William G. Martin of the home; a daughter, Darlene Martin Bufkin of Shallotte; a son, John Charles Martin of Charlotte; three brothers, Charles Flowers and Robert Flowers, both of Lumberton, and Tommy McLean of Columbus, Ga.; three sisters, Betty Ruth Tarr of Alabama, Helen Hall of Huntsville, Ala., and Joyce Roughton of Redwood City, Calif.; and two grandchildren, Tonya Lee Bufkin and Richard Wayne Bufkin, both of Shallotte.

Mrs. Martin was the daughter of the late Charles and Nettie Flowers.

ETTA PEARLIE BLANTON

Etta Pearlite Blanton, 90, of Hillhaven Convalescent Center and Shallotte, died April 25.

A graveside service was held April 27 in Chapel Hill Cemetery, Shallotte, with the Rev. Maurice Millian and the Rev. Landis Lancaster officiating.

Mrs. Blanton was born in Ash, the daughter of the late Chesep and Joe Bozeman Carlisle.

Survivors include two daughters, Annie Neal Gray and Vertlene Woodard, both of Shallotte; nine grandchildren; 19 great-grandchildren; and six great-great-grandchildren.

BERIT GRAINGER

Berit Grainger of Norway and formerly of Ash, died April 30 in Oslo, Norway. She was a native of Norway.

A memorial service will be held Sunday, May 5, at 3 p.m. in the Brunswick Funeral Service Chapel, Shallotte, with the Rev. Garland Long officiating. Burial will be May 6 in Oslo.

The family will receive friends at the home of Mrs. Grainger's mother-in-law, Irene Grainger, located on Stanbury Road near Holden Beach.

Survivors include her husband, W.D. Grainger of Norway; three daughters, Linda Grainger, Annette Grainger and Tonya Grainger; and one son, Tommie Grainger, all of the home.

A May 10 gospel sing for Hope Harbor Home will feature The Singing Americans.

RELIGIOUS BRIEFS

Sing To Aid County Shelter

The Singing Americans and two local groups will appear in a benefit gospel sing Friday, May 10, at 7:30 p.m. at Shallotte Middle School.

The sing, sponsored by King's Children Ministries of Wilmington, is part of a fund drive on behalf of Hope Harbor Home, Brunswick County's shelter for battered women and their children.

Admission to the concert is free to businesses who donate any size contribution to the fund drive and to their patrons, said W.E. (Eddie) Reynolds Jr., ministry president.

The fund drive ends Thursday, May 9.

To be admitted free, patrons need only to name the county business where they shop that donated to the shelter. A person at the door will check the business name against a list of contributors.

Local groups on the program are The Altarmen and Von Ferguson and the Coastalaires.

Stimpson To Minister

The Rev. Scott Stimpson of Oklahoma will bring his prophetic ministry to New Life Assembly, Stone Chimney Road, Supply, today (Thursday) and Friday, May 3, starting at 7:30 p.m.

Bobby Norton, pastor, invites everyone to attend.

Strawberry Fest Set

Little River United Methodist Church Hand Bell Choir will sponsor a strawberry festival Saturday, May 4, starting at 10 a.m. at Indigo Farms.

Homemade cake and strawberries with whipped cream will be sold for $1.50. Beverages also will be available, said spokesman Bob Pruett.

Proceeds will benefit the hand bell choir. Indigo Farms is located on Hickman Road north of Calabash.

Quartet To Sing

The Altarmen, a gospel quartet from Shallotte, will be featured at a gospel sing Sunday, May 5, starting at 6 p.m. at Oak Grove Baptist Church.

The Rev. Russell Hewitt, pastor, invites the public to attend.

Summer Classes Set

Summer classes begin this week at the Coastal Baptist Study Center north of Supply on U.S. 17.

The seven-week summer session offers two courses suitable for pastors and lay persons: Formation For Ministry and a study of 1st Corinthians.

Both classes meet in two-hour sessions on Wednesdays, with credits available.

More information is available at the center, 754-7979.

Women's Day Set

Little River United Methodist Church will observe its annual "Women in the Pulpit" Sunday on May 5.

The Rev. Mary Eskew Rowell, pastor of McCormick United Methodist Church in McCormick, S.C., will be the guest speaker at both morning worship services.

Laywomen of the congregation will take part in the services and serve as ushers, said Mary Cobb, communications coordinator.

The church is located on U.S. 17 in Little River, S.C.

Training Planned

A key leadership training conference is planned by the Brunswick Baptist Association May 28 from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m. at Supply Baptist Church.

Conferences will be offered in key leadership areas in the church: clerks, youth ministry, student ministry, brotherhood, Christian life and public affairs, church and community ministries, pastoral ministries, discipleship training, evangelism, media library, missions development, moderators, music, seminary extension, stewardship, Sunday school and Woman's Missionary Union.

More information is available from the associational office.

Doll show hours have been extended from 11 a.m. until 3:45 p.m. to accommodate school-age children. Featured will be dolls of all sizes and types.

CEDAR GROVE AREA NEWS

Churches To Observe National Day Of Prayer

BY BARBARA T. HEWETT

Cedar Grove Missionary Baptist Church plans to join other churches and Christians nationwide today (Thursday) in observing the 20th National Day of Prayer.

For Cedar Grove, this is an opportunity to intercede in prayer for misguided young people, to petition the Father to end the multimillion-dollar industry of the king-pin drug dealers, and an opportunity to lift a united voice of praise and adoration for the victory Jehovah the Lord gave in the Middle East War, as well as the safe return of loved ones home to their friends and families.

For these and countless other blessings there will be a praise and adoration time of personal testimonies at the church tonight (May 2) at 7:30 p.m., preceded by a day-long fast.

The program is being coordinated by senior officers Pencie Bryant, Barbara Turner Hewett, Dorothy Percy Hewett, Sandra Galloway Robinson; young adult officers Christobelle Bryant, Perita Bryant Price, Rita Lynn Hargroves, Lynette Hewett McKenzie and Delwood Johnson, as well as youth officers Francis Grissett, past supervisor Lucille Bryant, Irene Scott, Eva Mae Bryant, Annie Vereen and the Rev. Freeman Gause, facilitator.

In addition to testimonies, the program will include singing by the combined choirs, readings of favorite Scriptures and prayers.

Correction

Kirby Frink I came from his church family in Melbourne, Fla., to be a special guest at Pleasant Grove's Mission Day Celebration, but he wasn't alone. Contributing their ministry of music, anointing and healing were his brothers Peter, Charlie, Andrew and Cleve.

Those present said it was a time of fellowship and inspiration, with one woman accepting Christ.

Familiar Face

Several members of Ocean View Association were wondering where they had seen his face before when they saw photographs of Brunswick County Spelling Bee Champion Leslie Myrie Jr. of Southport.

He is the nephew of retired educators Jonathan and Irene Hankins of Southport, and has accompanied Mrs. Hankins to Ocean View concerts and other activities.

One of his first public appearances was as a visiting student reader in the International Reading Mini Conference at UNC-Wilmington. A special platform was erected so that he could be seen by the audience.

Leslie gains in public visibility with each new achievement, and may be ready in the near future, with God's help and his own ability, to make an even greater contribution to America.

Remember Tribute

Brunswick County churches are being asked to contribute, in whatever way possible, to the Jesse Bryant Honors Day program at Cedar Grove Missionary Baptist Church Saturday, May 2, at 5 p.m. The event is open to the public.

Birthday Greetings

Tune In

Be sure to listen to WVCB (1410 A.M.) in Shallotte Thursdays at 3 p.m. and Saturdays at 10:15 a.m. for the Cedar Grove Area News. On Sunday evenings, listen for the Moments of Inspiration gospel music ministry.

Weekly Scripture

The Scripture for the week comes from Daniel 2, "...That night in a vision Jehovah told Daniel what the king had dreamed. Then Daniel praised the Lord of heaven saying, 'Blessed be the name of Jehovah forever and ever, for he alone has all wisdom and all power.'"
