CEDAR GROVE AREA NEWS

Service Will Honor Mothers

BY BARBARA T. HEWETT

Early in this century some of our leaders were wise enough to have a Sunday set aside just to remind mothers that they are as flowers, giving always a sweet aroma and beauty in the eyes of the beholder.

Even the carnations made into corsages seem to represent a Christian mother's love, never letting go of the petals even when they are as dry as a powder house. As they get old, the petals instead curl toward the center of the flower.

The observance of Mother's Day throughout America gives a feeling of unity in every culture, regardless of creed or race. Cedar Grove Missionary Baptist Church joins in this annual observance the second Sunday of May.

Again this year the 11 a.m. service on May 12 will honor mothers. The public is invited.

Choirs To Gather

St. John Missionary Baptist Church in Bolivia will host the Confederation of Choirs Sunday, May 12, at 2 p.m. for its monthly singspiration.

The public is invited to attend the program, brought by singers from 12 churches of various denominations from Supply to Leland to Supply.

Institutes Offered

You're invited to the Woman's Baptist Home & Foreign Missionary Institute beginning this week at Friendship Missionary Baptist Church.

The Rev. Charles Jacobs, pastor, and members welcome all.

Also, the public is welcome to attend the last two nights of inspirational Bible study under way at St. James Missionary Baptist Church, Midway Road, Bolivia. The Rev. Ronnie McCrae Jr. is pastor.
