Lady Trojans Fall To West Columbus, North Brunswick

West Brunswick lost a pair of Waccamaw 2-A Conference softball games to West Columbus and North Brunswick last week while dropping from a three-way tie for first place in the league standings.

West Columbus took a 15-7 win last Tuesday and North Brunswick managed a 6-5 edging of the Lady Trojans on Friday.

The win gave West Columbus (8-3) sole possession of first place in the conference while West Brunswick dropped to 6-5 in the league and 10-7 overall.

The Lady Trojans visit South Brunswick on Friday at 4 p.m. in their final regular-season contest.

North Brunswick

West Brunswick's Tonya Long had two hits and freshman pitcher Ellen Wymms tossed a six-hitter in her first game but it wasn't enough as the Lady Scorpions scored three times in a key third-inning uprising to escape with the win.

North Brunswick improved to 8-4 in the league to close within a half-game of first-place West

Columbus.

The Lady Trojans are among a four-team chase for third place in the league with all squads battling with identical 6-5 conference records.

West Columbus

Winning pitcher Melissa Hardin and Clem Martin both went 3-for-5 at the plate in leading West Columbus to its 15-7 win over the host Lady Trojans.

Martin blasted two home runs including a three-run shot in the fourth inning. Nicole Cooper also had two hits in five trips for the Lady Vikes.

West Columbus scored eight runs in the first two innings and added five more in the fourth to remain on top in the battle for the league championship.

Perry Culpepper and Long both went 2-for-3 for West Brunswick and losing pitcher Jenny Judah drove in four runs. Both Long and Judah belted home runs.

Whiteville Nips Lady Scorp 15-14

Whiteville scored five runs in the sixth inning to rally from an early 10-2 deficit and upset visiting North Brunswick 15-14 in Waccamaw 2-A Conference softball play last Tuesday.

Sonya Kennedy had two hits including a double for North Brunswick (8-4) while Tabby King also had a pair of hits with a solo home run.

Losing pitcher Rhonda King had a double, Angie Goddard also had two hits including a double and Dawn Sholar added a triple.

Tonya Jones led Whiteville (5-6) going 3-for-4 with a double and a triple and LaShanta Godfrey and Angela Slater both had two hits.

Andrea Sibbett was the winning pitcher going the distance for the Lady Wolfpack.

REGIONAL PLAY OPENED WEDNESDAY

West Netters Edge South, Fall To Aycock In Team Playoffs

The West Brunswick boys' tennis team closed out its regular season last Wednesday with a 5-4 edging of South Brunswick and clinched a share of second place in the Waccamaw 2-A Conference.

The Trojans opened the dual team state play-offs Monday with a 9-0 loss to powerful C.B. Aycock.

However, six West players were among the field that opened the 1-A—2-A Eastern Regional individual championship tournament Wednesday at UNC-Wilmington. Regional play continues today (Thursday) with all singles and doubles semifinal and finalists advancing to next week's state championship tourney at Chapel Hill.

Stanley-Hardy Seeded in Regional Tourney

West Brunswick's Jody Dale and Allen along with South Brunswick's Ryan Yount and Jason Folding participated in the opening round of the regional tournament that began yesterday (Wednesday) in Wilmington.

Among the doubles field were the Trojan teams of Raford Stanley-Lamar Hardy, seeded sixth and Jon Dimmery-Benji Mankin. Mankin replaced Michael Sellars who injured his wrist last Sunday while practicing.

South teams in the event were Andy Martin-Mike Zeoli and Shane Vannoy-David Cureton.

The top singles seeds for the tournament were defending regional champion Chad Medlin (C.B. Aycock) at number one, David Valentiner (East Bladen) at two, Jonathan Jackson (Saint Pauls) at three, Dwayne Bailey (C.B. Aycock) at four and 1990 semifinalist Gary Mattes (Lejeune) at number 5.

Valentiner finished singles play undefeated in Waccamaw Conference play. Bailey was the number two singles player at Aycock and Jackson's only singles losses this spring came at the hands of 4-A opponents.

Top doubles seeds for the tourney were Taylor-Davis Brinson (James Kenan) at number 1, Chad Lewis-Mark Willis (Clinton) at two, Matt Hughes-Sloan Rogers (C.B. Aycock) at three, Dempsey Smith-Brandon Parker (Saint Pauls) at four, David McCaw-Jason Shelborne (Whiteville) at five and West Brunswick's Stanley-Hardy at number six.

South Brunswick

Raford Stanley, Jody Dale, Michael Sellars and Benji Mankin were all singles winners against the Cougars but it took a doubles victory by Stanley-Lamar Hardy to give West its 5-4 win and a sweep of South Brunswick this spring.

Raford-Hardy were down 5-3 in the pro-set match before rallying for an 8-5 win.

C.B. Aycock

Defending Eastern Plains Conference champion and unbeaten C.B. Aycock rolled past the Trojans in the opening round of the state dual championship tournament Monday sweeping all singles and doubles matches.

"The 9-0 score was not indicative of our play," said West Brunswick coach Marti Gillis. "As a whole, we played one of our best matches all season."

RECREATION BRIEFS

22 Union Students In Project Fitness

Twenty-two students ages 7 through 9 from Union Primary School recently competed in Project Fitness, a track and field competition sponsored by the Brunswick County Board of Education.

Earning first place in the 50-yard dash were Corey Daniels, Leon Bessent, Lashanda Hill and Lashanda Stephens, according to the school newsletter.

Claiming second place prizes were Robey Heavener, curl-ups; Sam Bernard, 600-yard run; and Arianal Fullwood, shuttle run.

Finishing in third place were Missy Frink, curl-ups; Ian Knott, pull-ups; Aaron Watson, 600-yard run; Tamara Stanley, broad jump; and Justin Bryant, shuttle run.

Also participating were Lajuan Daniels, Iris Scherer, Dana Stanley, Will Gore, Terry Evans, Corey Hill, Crystal Whitesides, Angela Maragliotti, Tara Champion and Elisha Bernard.

Drama Camps Planned

The Brunswick County Parks and Recreation Department will sponsor two creative dramatic day camps this summer for children ages 10 to 17.

Participants will be involved in a four-day instructional program and a performance for the general public.

The cost of the week-long day camp is $12 per person. Camp will be held Monday through Thursday from 9 a.m. until noon.

Dates for the day camps are June 24-27 at South Brunswick High School and Aug. 5-8 at West Brunswick High School.

Children interested in attending must register and pay at least two weeks before camp begins. For information, contact Emma T. McGraw at 253-4357.

Van Camps Set

Swimming, fishing, arts and crafts, nature walks, field trips and other youth activities will be offered this summer when the Brunswick County Parks and Recreation Department sponsors four weeks of van camp.

Camp for local children ages six to nine will be held July 8-12 and July 22-26. The camps for kids ages

10 to 13 are scheduled July 15-19 and July 29 through Aug. 2.

Participants will meet each morning at the Brunswick County Government Center in Bolivia and be transported in vans to a variety of activities. Camp lasts from 9 a.m. until 5 p.m. each day.

The weekly fee is $45, which covers activities and one T-shirt for the first week of participation. Special field trips will cost extra.

Registration is required, and fees are due one week prior to each camp. For information, call Emma T. McGraw at 253-4357.

Noble Wins

Billy Noble of Shallotte took first place in his division at the N.C. Junior Olympic Wrestling State Championship May 4 at Gardner-Webb College at Boiling Springs.

Noble competed in the 88-pound weight class in the school boy division.

Blake Hobbs of Leland took second place at 154 pounds in the cadet division. County resident Dean Ballard also competed.

All three wrestle for Coastal Carolina Mat Club, sponsored by the Brunswick County Parks and Recreation Department.

Tryouts Set

Brunswick County Parks and Recreation Department will hold registration and tryouts for two pre-major baseball teams.

Tryouts for ball players from West and South Brunswick high schools will be held May 18 from 3 p.m. until 5 p.m. at West and May 20 from 6 p.m. until 8 p.m. at South.

Registration for students from North Brunswick High School and Acme Delco High School is scheduled May 19 from 3 p.m. until 5 p.m. and May 20 from 6:30 p.m. to 9 p.m. at North Brunswick.

Surfers Going To Nationals

The Shallotte Shredders, a surfing team comprised of Shallotte Middle School students, have qualified for a national competition in California next month.

Shredders finished first in the middle school division of the National Scholastic Surfing Association's Carolina Conference, made up of teams from Long Beach to Folly Beach, S.C.

The team is trying to raise money for a trip to Oceanside, Calif., June 24-27 to compete for the national title, said Coach Marty Mentzer. A reggae concert featuring The Amateurs will be held this Saturday at 7:30 p.m. at the middle school. Tickets are $4 in advance and $5 at the door.

The Shredders also are selling T-shirts that say "Support Your Local Surfer" for $15 each. To purchase a shirt or make a donation, call Mrs. Mentzer at 754-6882 or 579-5963.

Supply-Mount Olive Leads Men's Church Softball League

League-leading Supply-Mount Olive Baptist edged Shallotte First Baptist 10-6 last Friday and topped Zion Baptist 7-6 earlier in the week to improve its record to 5-0 in the Brunswick County Men's Church Softball League.

Ocean View Baptist (4-1) remained in second place with an 11-1 ripping of Calvary Baptist, also last Friday as the 10-team league moved into its second week of play.

In other church league play Monday, Friendship Baptist routed Longwood Baptist 19-3, New Britain Baptist trounced Letties Grove Penecostal 32-13 and Zion Baptist defeated Shallotte First Baptist 21-10.

In the only other game played last Friday, Camp Methodist edged Letties Grove 15-10. Results from the week prior (Friday) saw Ocean View edge Shallotte First Baptist 13-10 and Friendship romped over Camp Methodist 22-7.

In the Monday games, Calvary rebounded to topple Letties Grove

17-9 and New Britain trounced Friendship 22-3.

League action continues at Waccamaw Park on Friday with three more games beginning at 7 p.m. Supply-Mount Olive faces Calvary in the opener followed by Camp Methodist vs. Ocean View Baptist (8 p.m.) and Longwood vs. Shallotte First Baptist (9 p.m.).

Three games are also set for Monday—Friendship vs. Letties Grove at 7 p.m., Supply-Mount Olive vs. Camp Methodist at 8 p.m. and Zion vs. Calvary at 9 p.m.
