WEST BRUNSWICK HIGH PRESENTS AWARDS

Elisa Herndon Receives First Russ Scholarship

West Brunswick High School senior Elisa Herndon, salutatorian of her class, was the first recipient last week of a new scholarship established in memory of a longtime Brunswick County educator.

It was among numerous scholarship awards announced or presented during West Brunswick High School's annual Awards Day last Wednesday morning.

Bailey Russ of Shallotte helped present the Edna Russ Scholarship, which was established by the Student Government Association (SGA) in his wife's memory.

Mrs. Russ taught in the Brunswick County Schools for 53 years. Approximately two years after she had officially retired, she returned to work, teaching remedial math at West Brunswick High School. A broken hip in March 1987 forced her permanent retirement.

SGA members voted to give the scholarship annually to a student who either aspires to teach and/or is proficient in math, said Jerry Small, advisor. Miss Herndon had earned A's in all her math courses.

Also new this year are the South Brunswick Isles Civitan Scholarships named in honor of Dr. Kendall Suh. Awards totaling $2,500 went to Chris Byrd, Elisa Herndon, Perry Culpepper and Chris Russ.

Guidance Counselor Bertha Bell said the Class of 1991 is a very talented class. Seniors have attracted substantial amounts of scholarship aid, as well as other financial assistance.

As of last week, class members had accepted scholarships valued at $22,800 for the coming year, with a cumulative value over the next four years of approximately $55,750.
