

Lakes Volunteer Fireman Pleads Guilty To Setting Two Fires

A Boiling Spring Lakes volunteer fireman admitted in Brunswick County District Court last week that he set two fires between Boiling Spring Lakes and Bolivia in March that each burned about 16 acres.

Ernest Paul Evans III, 20, of Cambridge Road, Boiling Spring Lakes, pleaded guilty to two counts of setting fire to grass, brush and woodlands.

Judge Napoleon "Poli" Barefoot Jr. sentenced Evans to four months in jail, suspended the sentence for five years and placed him under five years' supervised probation on each of the two counts.

He was also ordered to pay $8,309 in total restitution to International Paper Co. and to Reeves Telecom of Boiling Spring Lakes.

Evans was ordered to pay $200 in attorney fees, complete high school or obtain a general equivalency diploma, submit to tests, undergo assessment within 30 days and pay cost of court.

He will be allowed to serve 96 hours of community service at the Boiling Spring Lakes Volunteer Fire Department within six months.

Judge Barefoot also ordered that Evans take a tour of a North Carolina prison unit with his probation officer.

According to the warrants filed by Carl Hayes, of the N.C. Forest Service, Evans was accused of starting fires March 21 on Reeves Telecom property and March 23 on property belonging to International Paper.

He was released under $500 bond. Judges Barefoot, David G. Wall and Jerry A. Jolly also heard the following cases in District Court for the period May 20-23:
