

Five Charged At Drug Checkpoints Get Suspended Sentences

Five men charged with drug violations at narcotics checkpoints on the county's highways received suspended sentences in Brunswick County District Court last week.

The checkpoints were manned by narcotics officers from the Brunswick County Sheriff's Department and the State Highway Patrol. Several checkpoints have been established along the county's highways since April.

Judge D. Jack Hooks Jr. sentenced the following men charged in those operations in court last Wednesday:

■Edward Ronald Harvell, 41, of Boiling Spring Lakes, pleaded guilty to possession of drug paraphernalia and was sentenced to 29 days in the Brunswick County Jail, suspended for two years. He was ordered not to possess any controlled substances or drug paraphernalia for two years, fined $100 and ordered to pay court costs and $35 to the sheriff's department undercover fund.

■William David Hatfield, 21, of Sophia, pleaded guilty to simple possession of marijuana and possession of drug paraphernalia and was sentenced to 29 days in jail, suspended for two years. He was ordered to submit to searches, to not possess any controlled substances or paraphernalia for two years, ordered to pay court costs and $35 to the undercover fund and fined $100.

■Ralph Edwin Church, 27, of Winston-Salem, pleaded guilty to simple possession of marijuana and possession of drug paraphernalia and was sentenced to six months in jail, suspended for two years. He was ordered to submit to searches, to possess no controlled substances or paraphernalia for two years, ordered to pay court costs and $35 to the undercover fund and fined $100.

■Michael K. McCann, 23, of Ravenwood, Va., pleaded guilty to misdemeanor possession of marijuana and misdemeanor maintaining a vehicle for keeping controlled substances and was sentenced to 29 days in jail, suspended for two years. He was ordered to submit to warrantless searches in North Carolina, to not possess any controlled substances for two years, to pay court costs and $500 to the undercover fund and fined $100. A gun taken in the investigation was turned over to the sheriff's department to be destroyed.
