

MR. AND MRS. ROBERT ALLEN GURGANUS
...Dorienne Michele Cosgrove

Cosgrove, Gurganus Vows Spoken At Campus Chapel

Dorienne (Dori) Michele Cosgrove and Robert Allen Gurganus were married Aug. 3 at the University of Georgia Chapel in Athens, Ga.

The bride is the daughter of Carol Atha Cosgrove of Atlanta and Earl Cosgrove of Douglasville, Ga. The groom is the son of Kermit and Mary Gurganus of Shalotte.

Didi Cosgrove McDuffie of Atlanta, sister of the bride, served as matron of honor. Other bridesmaids were Darci Cosgrove Stratton of Atlanta, sister of the bride, and Kelly Jones of Shalotte, niece of the groom. Katy Jones of Shalotte, niece of the groom, served as flower girl.

Best man was Kermit (Kenny) Gurganus Jr. of Wilmington, brother of the groom. Reggie Smith and Chris Smith, friends of the groom from Shalotte, served as ushers.

The Rev. Alex Williams of the University's Campus Ministries officiated the double ring ceremony.

The bride is a graduate of Lakeside High School in Atlanta and received a bachelor's degree in English at the University of Georgia in 1987.

The groom is a graduate of West Brunswick High School and received a bachelor's degree in history from the University of North Carolina at Wilmington in 1986. He is employed by the U.S. Postal Service at the Shalotte Post Office, where he has been a rural letter carrier for three years.

The couple will reside in Shalotte.

Smith, Ward Exchange Vows

Shondra Ree Smith and Tony Curtis Ward, both of Wilmington, were married Saturday, Aug. 10, at 4 p.m. at Ocean View Baptist Church near Ocean Isle Beach.

The Rev. Charles A. Smith, uncle of the bride, performed the double-ring ceremony. Music was presented by Phyllis Turnage, pianist, and Dawn Wood and Wayne Turnage, vocalists.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Monroe Smith of Ash. She is the granddaughter of Agnes B. Nelson and Vera C. Smith of Ash and the late Ernest G. Smith.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J.C. Ward of Ocean Isle Beach. He is the grandson of Lola Ward of Wilmington, Mack Ward of Laurinburg, Dora Hughes of Ocean Isle Beach and the late Barney Ludlum.

The bride, given in marriage by her parents and escorted by her father, wore a formal satin and lace gown featuring a wedding band collar of beaded and sequined Schiffler lace accented with dangling pearls.

The long pouf satin sleeves featured lace appliques at the shoulders. The bodice was embroidered with a sheer yoke and Schiffler lace dropping into a fitted waistline.

The full skirt was bordered with lace appliques in front and edged in scalloped lace that flowed into a cathedral train of cut-out appliques of Schiffler lace.

The bride's headpiece was a satin hat with Alencon lace, pearls and crystals. The upturned brim in back was accented with silk flowers and pearl sprays on each side, imported silk lilies of the valley, pearl filaments and a pouf, with attached fingertip veil.

The bride carried her aunt's wedding Bible and grandmother's lace handkerchief covered with a corsage of white roses and purple statice with satin streamers.

Ree "Mimi" Sloan of Wilmington, aunt of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a tea-length dress of royal purple satin with a white lace bodice, fitted waistline, scalloped sabbra neckline and pouf sleeves with bows. She carried one long stem white rose with purple satin streamers.

Bridesmaids were Joy Renee Smith of Wilmington, best friend of the bride; Donna Carol Smith of Greensboro, cousin of the bride; and Delois Long of Ash, aunt of the bride.

They wore tea-length dresses of royal purple satin featuring a scalloped sabbra neckline, pouf sleeves with bows and a fitted dropped waist. They each carried a single long stem white rose with purple satin streamers.

The groom wore black full dress by the Robert Wagner Collection. The groom's father served as best man.

Groomsmen were Ernest Monroe Smith Jr. and Kevin Andrew Smith, brothers of the bride; and Timmy Ludlum, friend of the groom, all of Ash.

They wore black tuxedos with purple ties and cummerbunds with a single white rose boutonniere.

Melanie Phillips attended the bridal register. The wedding was directed by Alice Smith, aunt of the bride.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was given by the bride's parents in the church fellowship hall.

The groom's parents entertained the wedding party with a pre-rehearsal cookout and pool party at the Bent Tree Plantation clubhouse Aug. 8.

The bride was also honored with a miscellaneous shower at Ocean Isle Beach on June 22, given by Yvonne Ward, mother of the groom.

Alice Smith, aunt of the bride, gave a surprise miscellaneous shower July 13 in Ash. Phyllis Sloan also entertained the bride with a luncheon shower July 21 in Wilmington. Elizabeth Day gave a bridesmaids' dinner July 27 in Wilmington.

MRS. TONY CURTIS WARD
...Shondra Ree Smith

The bride graduated from Miller-Motte Business College and is employed at Carolina Power & Light Company in Southport.

The groom is a graduate of Cape Fear Community College and is employed at Exide Electronics in Leland. The two were flown to their honeymoon destination by private plane, owned and piloted by Harry Sloan.

The Wards will reside in Wilmington.
