

Brunswick County School Board Approves Staff Actions

Brunswick County Board of Education members completed staffing arrangements for the new school year Saturday, filling vacancies set in motion by several last minute resignations and other changes.

Several of the reassignments haven't been carried out, pending hiring freeze waivers from the state. The individuals will retain their old positions until waivers are received, said Ralph Ward, personnel director.

Jerry Small, driver education teacher and athletic director, will temporarily act as an assistant principal at West Brunswick High School in Shallotte, filling in for Carlton Sligh, who is out on leave. Sligh was recently reassigned from attendance counselor to assistant principal.

Terry Chestnutt, a physical education teacher and coach at Waccamaw Elementary School at Ash, was named interim assistant principal, pending a freeze waiver from the state. Assistant Principal Sybil Mitchell Simmons is on maternity leave.

In the central office, Mary Wolf, pupil personnel services director, has resigned to become psychologist for the Currituck County Schools.

New Season To Begin

The Shallotte Ladies Barbershop Chorus will begin its new season Tuesday, Sept. 17.

Rehearsals will be held each Tuesday at Camp United Methodist Church in Shallotte at 7:30 p.m., according to publicity chairman Tina Redman.

The barbershop chorus is open to women of all ages in Brunswick County, and the South Carolina communities of Little River and North Myrtle Beach.

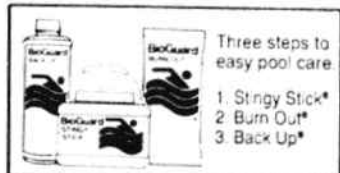

For more information, call Belinda Formyduval at 754-5372 or Mrs. Redman at (803)249-4534.

Not all pool chlorine is the same.

Your bargain pool chlorine may not be such a bargain. Because ordinary drum chlorine from the discount store isn't stabilized.

BioGuard offers stabilized chlorine. It lasts longer in your pool. So you don't have to add as much as often.

See your BioGuard dealer today to find out more about safe, effective, stabilized chlorine.
