

Clemmons, Moore Married At Mt. Pisgah In Supply

Brenda Kay Clemmons and Michael Richard Moore Sr. were married July 6 in a 5 p.m. candle-light ceremony at Mt. Pisgah Baptist Church, Supply.

The Rev. Kenneth Benton, uncle of the bride, officiated the double-ring ceremony. Music was performed by Sonya Brown, soloist, and Loretta Hewett, pianist.

Special music performed by the soloist, Sonya Brown included You Light Up My Life and The First Time I Loved Forever; also a pre-recorded selection of All My Life by Aaron Neville and Linda Ronstadt was played as a special song for the couple.

The church archway was decorated with candles, spiral candles, unity candle, prayer bench and flowers of aqua, soft peach and white. The vestibule was decorated with wedding bells and window candles.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Ashley Clemmons of Supply. The groom is the son of Mrs. Carol Vaden of Winston-Salem and Eddie Moore of North Myrtle Beach, S.C.

Given in marriage by her father, Ms. Clemmons wore a white bridal gown with a Queen Anne neckline, basque bodice and sleeves adorned with lace and seed pearls. It featured a pouff peplum on dropped waist and semi-cathedral train with cut-out detail of lace and beads.

The headpiece was a beaded venise lace empire crown with back pouff and a lace-edged fingertip veil and blusher. She carried a bouquet of peach roses and miniature white mums with greenery.

Ann Hucks of Gause Landing was her maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Jackie Milliken, Robin Farmer, Tina Hewett, all friends of the bride, and Amy Caison, her cousin. They wore identical aqua gowns with sabrina necklines, plunging V-backs, leg-o-mutton sleeves with tulle sashes and bow accents on the elongated waists.

Ms. Hucks carried two long-stemmed peach roses streamered in aqua, peach and white. The bridesmaids carried single peach roses.

The groom's father served as his best man. Groomsmen were Brian Clemmons, nephew of the bride; Jeff Cresson and Pete Chaffin, brothers-in-law of the groom, both from Winston-Salem; and Terry Godwin, friend of the groom.

Flower girl was Cassi Farmer, daughter of Robin and Tracey Farmer, friends of the bride. She wore a white gown with satin basque bodice, hand-beaded embroidery, jeweled neckline, ruffled skirt and waist bow. She carried a basket of silk flowers.

Ring bearer was Addison Ottoway, cousin of the groom, and son of Mr. and Mrs. Kent Ottoway. He wore a double-breasted black suit and carried the rings on a handmade pillow.

A reception for the newlyweds was held at the fellowship hall at Mt. Pisgah. Servers were Nettie Jane Taylor and Cheryl Hollis, aunts of the bride; Jackie Shelly and Lois Caison, cousins of the bride; Gene Weavil, cousin of the groom. The bride's table was decorated with a double candelabra and sprays of aqua and peach mums.

The groom wore a black tuxedo with pique shirt, vest and tie. The groomsmen wore black tuxedos with ties to match the bridesmaids' gowns.

MRS. MICHAEL RICHARD MOORE SR. ... Miss Brenda Kay Clemmons

Mother of the bride wore a blue-grey tea-length formal with floral lace overlay and lace sleeves. Mother of the groom wore a pink tea-length formal with a layered sheer chiffon that tapered below the waist.

The wedding and reception was directed by Lou Ellen White. Guest register was attended by Gina Chaffin, sister of the groom. Programs and seed were distributed by the groom's sons, Michael Moore Jr. and Adam Moore.

Church decorations were by Jojuann Sommersett, photography by Kermit Meyers and videography by Ron and Benita Herandez.

A wedding reception was hosted by the bride's parents and a rehearsal dinner was hosted by the groom's parent. A bridal shower was given in June by Lois and Amy Caison. A lingerie shower was given by Ann Hucks and Tina Hewett on June 22.

Following a honeymoon in the mountains of North Carolina, the newlyweds are making their home in Calabash.

The bride is employed by The Brunswick Beacon of Shallotte and is a 1983 graduate of West Brunswick High School. The groom is employed by Carolina Power and Light Co. in Southport and is a 1978 graduate of Parkland High School.

CLUB BRIEFS

Learn Western Dance

Shallotte Wheel and Dealers' Western Square Dance Club will host get-acquainted sessions Sept. 6 and 13 for those interested in learning about western square dance, said spokesman Rose Andres.

The sessions will be held at 8 p.m. at Shallotte Middle School.

Also, classes for interested persons of all ages begin Sept. 20 at 7 p.m., also at the school. Caller Hal Dodson will also welcome former square dancers for review.

For information about the classes and the club, which is sponsored by Brunswick County Parks and Recreation Department, contact Charlie Holden, 754-6014, or Frank Ambrosio, 278-6347.

Gates To Speak

Donald Gates, crime prevention officer with the Brunswick County Sheriff's Department, will be the guest speaker at the next meeting of the Brunswick County Chapter of NARFE.

NARFE, or the National Association of Retired Federal Employees, meets Tuesday, Sept. 3, at 12 noon at Joe's Barbecue in Shallotte.

Gates will discuss home safety, said chapter spokesman James H. Bryant.

NARFE meetings are open to the public and members and prospective members are encouraged to attend. Membership is open to federal retirees and federal employees with at least five years service.

Yard Sale Is Saturday

A "Trainload of Treasures" yard sale will be held by the Senior Citizens of Holden Beach Saturday, Aug. 31 from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. on the lot next to Jane's Seafood, on Holden Beach Road (N.C. 130 East), said spokesman Myrtle Hanke.

Ladies Club Meets

The Brierwood Ladies Club will hold its first meeting of the season Monday, Sept. 9, at 7 p.m. at the clubhouse.

The meeting will be a social gathering with wine, cheese, punch and fruit, said spokesperson Pat Narazinski.

All female residents of Brierwood Estates are invited to the meeting.

Seniors To Meet

Town Creek Senior Citizens resume their regular monthly meetings next week following a summer break.

The club meets Thursday, Sept. 5, at 1 p.m. at the Town Creek Community Park on U.S. 17, said vice president Bill Dunn.

Tina Pritchard of the Brunswick County Parks and Recreation Department will present an overview of the senior trips program.

"To me it looks exciting," Dunn said. "I really believe it includes a trip for every senior citizen in the county."

Refreshments will be served, and bingo will be played after the meeting.

Wedding Date Set

Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Ray Russ of Shallotte have announced the forthcoming marriage of her daughter, Debra Ann Brown, to William David Pridgen III, son of Mr. and Mrs. William David Pridgen Jr. of Shallotte Point. The wedding will be held Saturday, Sept. 14, at 3 p.m. at Jennies Branch Baptist Church on Brickland Road (N.C. 179). The bride-elect is also the daughter of Thomas J. Brown of Holden Beach.
