

Tabor, Davis Wed In Double-Ring Ceremony

Susan Michelle Tabor of Town Creek and James Edward Davis of Raleigh were wed July 28 in Zion United Methodist Church at Town Creek.

The Rev. Billy Peele officiated the double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Cheryl Smith Tabor of Town Creek and George R. Tabor III of Boiling Spring Lakes. She is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Smith of Town Creek, Evelyn Tabor Johnston and James Johnston of Winnabow and the late George R. Tabor.

The groom is the son of Gerald E. Davis of Raleigh and Barbara C. Davis of Riverside, Calif. He is the grandson of Nellie Davis of Fremont and the late Jessie W. Davis.

Music during the wedding ceremony was provided by pianist Kathy Summerlin, organist Beth Morris and vocalists Fran K. and Steven Tabor, the bride's aunt and uncle.

The bride was given in marriage by her parents and her brother, Steven Brett Tabor, and escorted to the altar by her brother and father. She was attired in a gown of ivory matte peau de soie adorned with alencon lace, pearls, sequins and hand-beaded lace appliques on the bodice and off-the-shoulder collar.

The back of the gown featured a triple-looped bow accented with alencon lace at the waist, which set off the lace on the chapel-length train and hemline. The bride's headpiece featured sprays of silk flowers, pearls, sequin leaves, lily of the valley, and a pouf to which her waist-length veil of illusion was attached.

Dawn Borsich of Boiling Spring Lakes served as maid of honor. Attendants were Kayde Smith, the bride's cousin; Bonnie Schwefel, Joylee Phillips Bevel of Town Creek and Kim Garrett Helms of Monroe. They were attired in above-the-knee dresses of coral satin with off-the-shoulder collars.

Stephanie Davis, cousin of the groom, was flower girl and William Smith, cousin of the bride, was ring bearer.

The groom's father and Joseph Farriss of Raleigh were the best men. Groomsmen were Greg Davis, the groom's brother; Steve Barrett, Sanford Pinion and Kyle Garrison, all of Raleigh.

Nicki Berbaum of Jacksonville, Fla., a cousin of the bride, attended the guest register.

The newlyweds received guests at a reception in the church fellowship hall. They reside at Town Creek.

Gurganus, Pridgen Vows Said At Jennie's Branch

Ginny Gurganus and John Tate Pridgen, both of Shallotte, were married Aug. 3 at Jennie's Branch Baptist Church between Shallotte and Ocean Isle Beach.

The double ring afternoon ceremony was officiated by the Rev. Jesse Bentley.

The bride is the daughter of Pamela Bellamy Keesee and Scott Gurganus, and was given in marriage by her grandparents, James and Virginia Bellamy, all of Shallotte.

The groom is the son of David and Judi Pridgen, also of Shallotte.

Best man was Keith White of Atlanta, Ga. Groomsmen and ushers were David Pridgen Jr., father of the groom, David Pridgen III, brother of the groom, Jason Gurganus, brother of the bride, and James Wemyss, cousin of the bride.

Ellen Wemyss, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor. Other bridesmaids were Carrie Beth Wemyss, cousin of the bride; Paige Pridgen, sister of the groom; and Debbie Brown.

Music was provided by vocalist Bobby Gore and pianist Perry Culpepper, who featured the songs Here and Now and Wedding Prayer. The bride wore a white satin strapless gown with heavily beaded bodice of pearls, appliques and iridescents, and a full flowing skirt with chapel-length train. The ensemble included a removable bolero jacket with fichu collar and beaded lace accents.

Her headpiece featured a pearl and iridescent pouf in back with a fingertip-length veil.

The bouquet was of white silk flowers, pearl sprays and satin and lace streamers.

Bridesmaids wore emerald taffeta gowns styled with a shirred bodice and portrait neckline. The dresses featured a rosette on the hip and tea length skirts. Each bridesmaid held silk mauve calla lilies wrapped in tulle and greenery, carried across the arm.

A reception was held after the ceremony at Sea Trail Plantation Amenity Center at Sunset Beach.

The bride is a senior at the University of North Carolina at Wilmington majoring in elementary education, while the groom is employed at Sea Trail as superintendent of the Byrd golf course.

After a honeymoon at Cape Hatteras, the couple is residing in Ocean Isle Beach.
