

MRS. RANDALL LEE WALTERS
...Janet Lea Burris

Burris, Walters Vows Spoken

Janet Lea Burris and Randall Lee Walters were married Saturday, Sept. 14, in a double ring ceremony at First Baptist Church of North Myrtle Beach, S.C.

The Rev. Lee Aldrich officiated the 3 p.m. ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, Charles Burris, the bride wore a formal gown in white. The gown featured a sweetheart neckline with lace bodice overlay, petal sleeves, and a full, gathered skirt with lace inserts and scalloped lace edging. She wore a headband with attached pouf and elbow-length veil.

JoAnne Burris of Charleston, S.C., served as her sister's maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Kim Bailey of Little River, S.C., Lisa Fineran of No. Myrtle Beach, S.C., Penny Flythe of Bennettsville, S.C., and Carol Walters of Sunset Beach.

A reception followed in the fellowship hall of the church.

Following a honeymoon in the North Carolina mountains, the newlyweds are residing in Little River, S.C.

The bride is a graduate of North Myrtle Beach High School and Horry-Georgetown Technical College. She is employed with National Bank of South Carolina.

The bridegroom, who is employed with Robbers Roost Golf Club, is a graduate of West Brunswick High School, Shallotte, and attended Appalachian State University, Boone.

Long Bay Garden Club Makes Plans

President Ann Laughinghouse discussed plans for the coming year at the Sept. 19 meeting of Long Bay Garden Club at the home of Jean Anderson at Brick Landing Plantation.

Plans include seminars, outings, an October workshop and a November auction.

In other business, Mrs. Laughinghouse won the monthly award for planting and recycling; the club voted in Deloris Evans of Ocean Isle Beach as a new member; and Birdie Frink announced that Andy Clemmons of Supply, a student at the University of North Carolina at Wilmington, received the club's annual scholarship.

Vickie Jones' program was a talk and demonstration on flower arranging. She used native materials and offered many tips on preparing flowers and materials for arrangements, said spokesman Kathleen Parker.

The club's October workshop will be held at Carol Roycroft's home on Mintz Street in Shallotte.

Cakes For Sale

The Ladies Auxiliary to Calabash V.F.W. Post 7288 plans a bake sale Saturday, Oct. 12, in front of Wilson's Grocery in Shallotte from 8:30 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Proceeds will go to St. Jude's Children's Research Hospital, Memphis, Tenn. The sale takes the place of the group's usual bike-athon benefit.

All donated cakes can be brought to the V.F.W. Post Friday, Oct. 11, between 5 and 6 p.m.

Questions should be directed to Ellen Oellerich, chairperson.

The next meeting of the auxiliary is Monday, Oct. 21, at 7:30 p.m. at the post.

BCTS Serving Dinner

The Brunswick Concert and Theatrical Society (BCTS) will host an evening of food and entertainment Saturday, Oct. 19, to raise funds for needed improvements at the Centennial Center.

The smorgasbord dinner will be provided by area restaurants and civic groups, with entertainment provided by Brunswick County talent.

The Center, located at the corner of Lord and Eighth streets in Southport, offers a large auditorium for the community's private and civic use.

Dinner tickets are $8, and reservations are required.

Questions can be directed to Mary Campbell, 1-919-278-3371, or Curt Little, 1-919-457-0743 during business hours.

Group To Meet

The Bosom Buddies, a support group for women who have undergone a mastectomy, has changed its usual meeting day from the third Tuesday of each month to the second Tuesday.

The next scheduled meeting will be Tuesday, Oct. 8, at 1:30 p.m. at the Sizzling Sirloin on Main Street in Shallotte.

For information contact Mary Benes, 579-3041.

Interact Is Topic

A high school teacher and Interact program leader from Lakewood, N.J., shared information on the Interact program sponsored by his local Rotary Club at a recent meeting of the Rotary Club of the South Brunswick Islands.

The local Rotary club plans to use speaker Bruce Jones' information in helping the local Interact program continue to grow, said Jeffrey T. Mintz, public relations chairman.

Jones said the 200-plus high school students in the Interact volunteer program at Lakewood have sponsored a prom for mentally handicapped adults, provided information on AIDS to teen-agers and send goods to Hurricane Hugo victims in McClellanville, S.C.

Hard work and persistence were needed to get the club started, Jones said, but the response from students has been rewarding.

The local Rotary club meets Fridays at 7:30 a.m. for breakfast at Sandpiper Bay Golf and Country Club. Visiting Rotarians are welcome.

Elks Fest A 'Success'

Calabash Elks and auxiliary members raised $2,500 for various civic projects at their recent "His & Hers Festival," reports Diane Carlson, chairperson.

Contributing to the total proceeds were sales of baked goods, crafts, white elephant items and a pig-picking.

Six individuals won prizes. They were Barbara and Bud Ruby, who won green fees at Ocean Isle Golf Course and Tidewater; Charles Mahony, green fees at Ocean Isle Golf Course; Jennie Patterson, Christmas wreath; Marvin Grissett, an afghan donated by Mrs. Carlson; and a woman identified only as "Mrs. Donahoe" won an oil painting, said John Ziefel, Elks spokesman.

Carlises To Gather

A Carlisle (Carlyle) family reunion will be held Sunday, Oct. 6, at the Waccamaw Community Building in Ash, starting at noon.

Spokesman Frances Carlisle said all Carlisle family members are invited and asked to bring a covered dish for dinner.
