CEDAR GROVE AREA NEWS

Youth Department Wins Honor

BY BARBARA T. HEWETT

It's been said that you get what you have earned. That has certainly come true for the Youth Department of Cedar Grove Missionary Baptist Church.

Their participation in the Ocean View

Union for its third quarter won them a plaque. Engraved with the name of the church, the plaque will hang at Cedar Grove until the second Saturday in December. Then they will again compete with youths of the association's 13 other churches for participation honors for the first quarter of 1992.

Presentation of the award followed a keynote speech by their local church supervisor, Francis Grissett, and comments by Barbara Hewett, state mission supervisor.

Samuel and Uzena Bernard donated a bulletin board and stand, with a message inviting members to Ocean View's 67th annual session, at Cedar Grove.

Choirs To Gather

Kendall Chapel will host the Confederation of Choirs Sunday, Oct. 13, at 2 p.m. In nearly 50 years of interdenomination praise and worship through music, this group has not changed its meeting time—the second Sunday of each month at 2 p.m. The public is invited to attend.
