It Could Be Hers Someday

Linda Heron is entranced by this dollhouse, refurbished by Susan Greene, Ruth Becht and Valerie Hulse and donated to St. James the Fisherman Episcopal Church in Shallotte. The house will be given away at the church's Holiday Craft Fair Saturday, Nov. 16, with proceeds from the event going to help build a new sanctuary. More information is available from church members.

CEDAR GROVE AREA NEWS

Cedar Grove Marks Shaw Day

BY BARBARA T. HEWETT

The month of October has long been remembered as the time to make special recognition of the Missionary Baptist institute of higher learning, Shaw University, which has been friends and alumni in our area.

Cedar Grove Missionary Baptist Church observed Shaw Day Oct. 13, under the direction of Sandra Robinson and Mattie Lorraine Williams.

Instructor Mack Sowell, Ph.D., delivered first-hand news of the 125-year old institution that has made such a lasting impression on the lives of so many area residents. Those attending said the presentation was informing and inspiring.

McGill Returned

The Rev. Harry Rudolph McGill returned to the area Oct. 6 as guest speaker at Little Macedonia Missionary Baptist Church.

Joined by the Cedar Grove Gospel Choir's ministry of music, he helped church members celebrate the senior choir's anniversary.

Birthday Greetings

Happy birthday to Wilma Blon-dell Williams, Etta Hewett, Collis Hewett, the Rev. Freeman Gause, Russell Hill, Florence Nickerson, Perita Frink, Jerry Reaves, Ester Kirby, Susan Eckhardt and Doshier Marlowe.

Tune In

Be sure to listen to WVCB (1410 AM) radio station in Shallotte for the Cedar Grove area news Thursdays at 3 p.m. and Saturdays at 10:15 a.m. On Sunday evenings listen for the Moments of Inspiration gospel music ministry.

Weekly Scripture

The Scripture for the week comes from Psalms 66, "Make a joyful noise unto the Lord all ye lands. Sing forth the honor of his name and make his praise glorious. All the earth shall worship thee and sing until thee!"

CHURCH ACTIVITIES

Spiritual Warfare Is Focus Of Conference

Members and friends of Cape Fear Alliance Church, in conjunction with Spiritual Truth Ministries, are holding a spiritual warfare conference Oct. 20-22 at the church facility near Southport.

Speakers will be Gerald McGraw, D.D., D.Min., D.Phil., director of the School of Bible and Theology at Toccoa Falls College in Georgia, and the Rev. Bruce Jackson, M.A., a pastor specializing in counseling and psychology at the Allegheny Center Alliance Church in Pittsburgh, Pa.

Both have had extensive experience in dealing with the "demonically oppressed," a news release indicated, and are equipped to bring a balance approach on spiritual warfare counseling in a conference setting.

Topics to be covered in the session include "Can a Believer be Demonized?", "Symptoms of Demonization," "The Believer's Authority" and "Who Can Deal With Demons?"

Session times are as follows: Sunday, 9:45 a.m.-10:45 a.m. and 11 a.m.-12 noon; and again 6 p.m.-7 p.m. and 7:15 p.m.-8:15 p.m.; Monday, 7 p.m.-8 p.m. and 8:15 p.m.-9:15 p.m.; and Tuesday, 7 p.m.-8 p.m. and 8:15 p.m.-9:15 p.m.

All meetings are free of charge, but free-will offerings will be taken to help defray conference costs. Nursery services will be provided.

More information is available from the pastor, the Rev. Gabriel Galdo, 1-919-457-5337. The church is located on N.C. 87/N.C. 133 east of Southport.

Men Set Yard Sale

The men of St. Luke Evangelical Lutheran Church in Shallotte will hold a yard sale Saturday, Oct. 19.

Sale hours are 8 a.m. to 2 p.m. at Andy's Landscaping and Shady Oak Florist on N.C. 179 at Seaside, a news release indicated.

Association Convenes

Messengers from the 43 member churches of the Brunswick Baptist Association convene Thursday and Friday, Oct. 24 and 25, for the association's annual session. The theme of the event will be "Discipling the Disciples."

The first day of the event will be held at Supply Baptist Church, convening at 3 p.m. under the leadership of The Rev. Doug Huff, pastor of Oak Island Baptist Church.

The association reconvenes Friday at 10 a.m. at Goshen Baptist Church, Leland, with the Rev. Jack Hancox, pastor of Brunswick Islands Mission, the newest addition to the association.

Guest speaker for the session is Bobby Stafford of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina.

Marvin W. Chapman, director of missions for the association, will install new officers for the coming year.

Homecoming Slated

District Superintendent Samuel McMillian of Wilmington will be the guest speaker at Homecoming Sunday, Oct. 20, at Village Point United Methodist Church at Shallotte Point.

Special singing is planned and the service will be followed by dinner in the fellowship hall.

The Rev. Robert Hargrove, pastor, and church invite all to attend.

Represents Church

Antwan King of Holy Bethel Church at Thomasboro recently represented the Eastern N.C. District of Fire Baptized Holiness Churches of America at the annual Youth Congress held in Greenville, S.C. He was escorted by Tia Marlowe.

The Eastern District was first runner-up in competition.

Antwan also represented his church at the Eastern District Youth Day in Faison, where Holy Bethel was the winner, said Youth Institute President Mildred Bellamy, citing the church's support of the program.

Smith To Preach

The Rev. Stan Smith of Troy, former pastor of Camp United Methodist Church in Shallotte and Beacon religious page columnist, is the pastor of the week at the Holden Beach Chapel.

He will preach at the 11 a.m. service Sunday following Sunday School at 10 a.m.

The chapel is located on Rothschild Street, across from Holden Beach Town Hall.

Services at the chapel will continue through October this year.
