

MR. AND MRS. KEITH DEWAYNE BROWN
...Ronda Michelle Cole

Davis, DeShaw Vows Spoken At Trinity United Methodist

Jill Louise Davis of Andrews, S.C., and David Gordon DeShaw of Manassas, Va., were married Oct. 12 at Trinity United Methodist Church in Andrews.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert C. Davis Sr. of Andrews.

The groom is the son of Ann Fazekas of Shallotte and Gordon DeShaw of Montrose, Ala.

The Rev. Edward Mainous officiated the late afternoon ceremony.

Matron of honor was the bride's sister, Susan Lambert of Andrews, S.C. Also attending her were Robin Driggers, sister of the bride, Connie Davis, sister-in-law of the bride, and Amber Driggers, the bride's niece, all from Andrews; and Suzanne Fazekas and Jackie Fazekas, sisters of the groom, both of Shallotte.

Flower girls were Tyler Davis of Andrews, niece of the bride, and Christine Kramer of New Jersey, niece of the groom.

Best man was Ray Ball of Palm Beach, Fla., friend of the groom. Ushers were Herbie Davis of Andrews, the bride's brother, and Pete Singleton of Myrtle Beach, S.C., and Scott Hite of Florence, S.C., both friends of the groom.

Jared Driggers and Bustin Lambert, nephews of the bride, both of Andrews, served as acolytes.

Chad Lambert of Andrews served as ring bearer.

The bride, escorted by her father, wore a white satin gown with scalloped v-neckline and cathedral-length train. It featured sweetheart sleeves of sheer illusion accented with pearls, sequins and lace overlay. The bodice had a princess waistline with lace overlay accented also with sequins and pearls.

Her headpiece included sprays of small, white flowers and a veil of sheer illusion.

The bride carried a cascading bouquet of white roses, calla lilies and ivy.

Her attendants wore purple satin waltz-length dresses and carried arm bouquets of lavender hydrangea, pink and lavender alstroemeria and purple delphinium.

Both the mother of the bride and the mother of the groom were presented with a white rose during the wedding ceremony.

Music was provided by organist Preston Smith and vocalist Bob Clemons, uncle of the bride, who sang Wedding Prayer and Walk Hand In Hand With Me.

A reception was given for the newlyweds after the ceremony in the fellowship hall of the church.

A rehearsal dinner had been given by Gordon and Cory DeShaw the evening before the wedding at Slug's Rib, Litchfield Beach, S.C.

The bride is a graduate of Andrews High School, and has attended Francis Marion College, Florence, S.C., and Horry-Georgetown

After a honeymoon in Palm Beach, the couple will reside in Manassas.

Hewett, Justice Exchange Wedding Vows In Supply

Rebecca Ellen Hewett and Gary Dwight Justice were married Nov. 2 at Supply Baptist Church, Supply.

The Rev. Charles McManus officiated the double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James F. Hewett of Supply and the granddaughter of Ada M. Hewett, also of Supply.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Justice of Durham and the grandson of Mrs. Ferrel Browning of Wilmington and the late Rev. D.D. Browning.

The bride was given in marriage by her parents and escorted by her father.

Music for the service was provided by organist Greg Bell and vocalist Beth Bell.

Matron of honor was Deborah H. Ferebee of Raleigh, sister of the bride. Also attending her were Tanya B. Long of Wilmington and Sheree B. Rhodes of Southport, cousins of the bride; Ellen Benke and Cindy Lee, both of Charleston, S.C.; and Renaé Chadwick of Fayetteville.

Best man was David Justice of Atlanta, Ga., brother of the groom. Other groomsmen were Eston Brinkley Jr. of Wilmington, uncle of the groom; Eston Brinkley III and Adam Brinkley, cousins of the groom, both of Wilmington; Gene Justice of North Myrtle Beach, S.C., cousin of the groom; and Gary Hewett of Supply, brother of the bride.

Zachary Long of Wilmington, cousin of the bride, served as ring-bearer.

Gina Dolch attended the bridal registrar and JoLuan Somersette served as wedding director.

The bride wore a white silk shantung gown. The bodice, covered in front and back with jeweled-silk guipure lace, featured a sweetheart neckline. The short, puffed sleeves were decorated with jeweled lace appliques.

A large bow on the back of the gown, accented with a rosette, led to a carriage back over the full skirt. Jeweled lace bordered the hem and chapel-length train.

She carried a bouquet of white lilies, rubrum lilies and roses.

A reception was given by the parents of the bride at Lockwood Golf Links Clubhouse immediately following the ceremony.

The parents of the groom gave a rehearsal dinner Friday night for the wedding party at Wally's Restaurant, Wrightsville Beach.

The bride is a graduate of the Medical University of South Carolina, Charleston.

The groom graduated from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

Both are employed as pharmacists at Revco.

After a wedding trip to Hawaii, the couple will reside in Southport.
