

CLUB BRIEFS

Birders To Hear Naturalist From Waccatee Zoo

Julie Finlayson, a naturalist from Waccatee Zoo, will be the guest speaker when the Brunswick Bird Club meets Wednesday, Nov. 20, at 7:30 p.m. in the meeting room of Atlantic Telephone Membership Corp. on N.C. 130 west of Shal-lotte.

She will show slides and speak about her work with wild birds and their nesting sites.

Shelling Is Topic

Dean and Dottie Weber will speak on shelling in Australia at the next meeting of the Beachcomber Shell Club of the South Brunswick Islands.

The club will meet Tuesday, Nov. 19, at Lockwood Folly Community Center on Stanbury Road for a covered dish luncheon and program.

For more information, interested persons may call Joyce Rose, 579-3664.

Meeting At Museum

Shelling will also be the topic when the Sunset Sands Garden Club meets today (Thursday) at 1:30 p.m. at the Museum of Coastal Carolina at Ocean Isle Beach.

Ruth Hood and Virginia Loester, members of the North Carolina Shell Club, will discuss and show shells found in the Carolinas. Refreshments will be served afterward at the Seatrail Property Owners' Clubhouse, said spokesman Ruth Asmusen.

Efforts Touted

Dean Southerland Jarrett of Wilmington spoke at the recent meeting of Samuel Swann Chapter, Colonial Dames of the 17th Century, met in Wilmington.

She was organizing president of the Old New Hanover Genealogical Society, which she said has established a strong reputation for publishing old records, thus providing easier access for researchers.

Of local interest, Mrs. Jarrett announced that the Brunswick County 1840 and 1860 census records are near publication.

Mrs. Jarrett is project chief for publishing Brunswick County Court Minutes. Every three months sessions of the old Court of Common Pleas and Quarter Sessions brought a county fair atmosphere to the host town. Everything from probate of wills to minor grievances, appointment of law enforcement and supervisory personnel and granting of licenses for some businesses filled the docket, she said.

Chapter member Lucille Blake of Leland was congratulated on her recent publication of the 1890 Brunswick County tax list. Since the federal census for 1890 was destroyed in a fire, this will serve as a partial census, said Mrs. Blake.

Also, Gwen Causey of Supply reported on the fall board of management meeting and announced upcoming state and national conferences.

Beautification To Meet

The Holden Beach Beautification Committee will continue to discuss landscaping the town hall grounds when it meets Wednesday, Nov. 20, at 10 a.m. at the town hall.

All Holden Beach residents interested in beautification are invited to attend the meeting, said spokesperson Rachel Harmon.

Check Out Toastmasters

A demonstration/organizational meeting for a prospective Toastmasters International Club will be held today (Thursday) from 7 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. in the fellowship hall of Zion United Methodist Church at Town Creek.

The meeting will introduce the Toastmasters communication program through a short "sample" meeting, followed by a question and answer session and brief business meeting to lay groundwork for the new club.

Toastmasters is the largest organization of its kind in the world, offering members an opportunity to develop better thinking, listening, speaking and leadership skills in a supportive, workshop-like setting.

Brunswick County has two morning clubs that meet weekly in Shal-lotte and Southport. Plans are also under way to begin an evening club in the Southport-Oak Island area.

More information on Toastmasters and directions to Zion United Methodist Church are available by calling Billy Peele, 253-5349, or Geraldine Kepley, 253-6584.

Hams For Sale

Shal-lotte Moose Lodge No. 710 will be selling barbecued Boston butts for $15 each at the lodge Friday, Nov. 22, starting at 3:30 p.m.

To order a boneless ham, call James Watson at 842-5533 or Addison Hayes at 842-3738. The lodge will deliver hams if requested.

Harvest Luncheon Set

The North Myrtle Beach Christian Women's Club will hold its November buffet luncheon at The Surf Club, 1701 Springland Lane, North Myrtle Beach, S.C., from noon to 2 p.m. on Thursday, Nov. 21.

The cost is $8.50 per person. The event will feature a flower arranging demonstration, musical performance and a guest speaker.

For reservations or cancellations, call Louise Blizzard, 579-2562.

Artists To Meet

The Waterway Art Association will hold a business meeting Wednesday, Nov. 20 at Seaside United Methodist Church, N.C. 179, near Ocean Isle Beach, at 1:30 p.m.

All local artists are invited to join. Membership is comprised of artists who use a variety of mediums, with arts and crafts excluded.

A painting session will precede the meeting at 9 a.m. Participants are asked to bring their own supplies and lunches.

Call Catherine Spencer, 579-4924, for more information.

Alliance Meets

The monthly meeting of the Alliance for the Metally III (Brunswick County support group) will be held Monday, Nov. 18, at 7 p.m. in the Public Assembly Building of the Brunswick County Government Center at Bolivia.

Dr. Chris Savard will speak on personality disorders. The public is invited.

Call Chris Judah, 842-7942, for more information.

Couple Renews Marriage Vows

Jerry and Barbara Jones of Shal-lotte celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary Aug. 3 with the renewal of their vows.

The ceremony was held at their home, with the Rev. Wade Sutton officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mattie Skipper of Conway, S.C., and the late Buster Skipper. The groom is the son of Allene Jones of Myrtle Beach, S.C., and Windle Jones of Conway.

Both the mother of the bride and the mother of the groom attended the ceremony.

The bride was escorted by the couple's sons, Mark and Kyle Jones, who also served as best man.

Laura R. Burrows of Florence,

S.C., longtime friend of the bride, served as matron of honor. Maid of honor was Diane Skipper of Conway, sister of the bride.

Tessa Kelly, a neighbor of the couple, served as flower girl.

Music was provided for the ceremony by vocalists Leolie Dagnese and Lori Causey, both of Shal-lotte. Selections included Wind Beneath My Wings and Doubly Good To You.

The bride carried a bouquet of white roses, daisies and babies' breath with blue and silver streamers to match her attire.

The ceremony and reception afterward were held outdoors. Sixty guests, both friends and family, attended and were served an old-fashioned barbeque.

Miss Tennessee '89 To Perform At Brunswick County Pageant

Lisa Robertson, Miss Tennessee 1989, is the latest special guest at the Brunswick County Pageant to be announced.

The Knoxville, Tenn., resident holds a bachelor of arts degree in long term health care administration from Southern College and received the 1990 Tennessee Governor's Award for Outstanding Public Service. She has been a guest entertainer for NCAA and NBA playoff events as well as a member of the governor of Tennessee's staff as spokesperson for Drug Free Tennessee.

Ms. Robertson now represents the Cultured Pearl Association, promoting the cultured pearl industry.

An accomplished violinist, she has performed at the Grand Old

Opry. She appears as a model in national fashion publications.

Other guests for the Nov. 23 pageant include Linnea Fayard, Miss Louisiana 1990, fourth runner-up to Miss America; Miss North Carolina 1991 Jennifer Smith, a Miss America semifinalist; and the Brunswick County Band.

The pageant will be staged at 8 p.m. at Hatch Auditorium on the grounds of the North Carolina Baptist Assembly, Caswell Beach.

A successor will be chosen to Miss Brunswick County 1991, Lisa Dale Young of Long Beach.

The Miss Brunswick County Scholarship Pageant is sponsored by Scholarship Pageants of Brunswick County Inc., a non-profit civic corporation.
