Church Observes Family Night

BY BARBARA T. HEWETT

HEWETT

Friday, Nov. 22, to arrange just such a night for their parents.

They wanted a chance to thank their parents and served them a pre-Thanksgiving dinner in the church's dining hall immediately following the church service. The meal was complete with turkey, vegetables, dessert and beverage.

The youth had the guidance of their pastor and supervisor, Frances Grissett. Marcus Gause said the prayer, and Myra Johnson and Maria Grissett offered theme discussions.

Youth Of The Month

Tinea "Tee" Bernard is finishing up her reign as Youth of the Month for November.

She is the daughter of Curtis Sinclair and Adell Bernard and was chosen for her dedicated services to the mission of the church.

Tinea is a fifth-grader at Shallotte Middle School and her hobbies include sewing and cooking.

CHURCH ACTIVITIES

Dinner Honors Seniors

Ocean View Pentecostal Free Will Baptist Church will honor senior citizens of the surrounding community at a special Christmas dinner at the church Saturday, Dec. 5, at 5 p.m.

Several groups and individuals will provide music and other entertainment, including the Coates Family Singers.

This is the third annual dinner for seniors held by the church. Harold Varnum, a deacon of the church, heads the committee for the event.

"The senior citizens who have given so much of their lives in service to this community deserve to be honored," said Varnum. "There is no time more fitting than when we celebrate the birthday of our Lord Jesus Christ."

Fish Fry Planned

Seaside Christian Fellowship of Seaside will hold a fish fry fundraiser Saturday, Dec. 7, from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the Calabash Fire Station.

The menu will feature fried spots, fried sweet potatoes, coleslaw, hush-puppies and tea or coffee. Plates are $4 each.

Proceeds will go to the church building fund.

Seniors Set Yard Sale

The senior adults of Jennies Branch Baptist Church and its surrounding community will hold a yard sale Saturday, Dec. 7.

Featured will be handcrafted Christmas decorations such as tree ornaments, table and window decorations, dolls and woodcraft items for the home and yard.

The sale will be held on N.C. 179 one-quarter mile from the church on the right, toward Shallotte, said spokesman Edith Hunter.

Open House Set

The Baptist Young Women of First Baptist Church of Boiling Spring Lakes invite the public to attend a Christmas Open House at the church Sunday, Dec. 8, from 3 p.m. to 5 p.m.

Holiday music, refreshments and the lighting of the tree are planned.

Weekly Scripture

The Scripture for the week comes from Psalms 30, "Hear, O Lord, and have mercy upon me: Lord, be thou my helper. Thou hast turned for me my mourning into dancing; thou hast put off my sockcloth, and girded me with gladness. To the end that my glory may sing praise to thee, and be not silent. O Lord my God I will give thanks unto thee forever."
