Dear Rudolph,
I am sorry that I called you names and wouldn't let you play in any reindeer games. I kind of like your red shiny nose. I am going to ask Santa Claus to put you at the front of the line, so you can lead the way.

Love and licks,
Dancer

Giving and Sharing

My parents taught me how to share with my friends and other people. I always share with my sister, because I love her. Sharing is important for everybody.

I like giving, because it makes people happy. When I go to birthday parties, I always give them a gift. Christmas time I give my parents a big present.

Matthew Hewett

This is something that Santa Claus wears.

Christmas In Other Countries

- In Austria, Mummers act out Christmas plays to fight away the evil spirits.
- In Japan, they sing during a Christmas play. Some Japanese people do what we do.
- In Latin America, the nine days before Christmas are called Bosadas.
- In Australia and New Zealand, Christmas comes in summer.
- In Spain, St. Nicholas comes on December sixth.
- Breaking a pinata is a Mexican tradition.

Dear Santa,
I might not be able to tell everything that I want. I want my Dad to fix my remote control on my race car. I want army men, a drum, a M.C. Hammer poster, Nintendo with turtle games and a big racing bike. I have more, but I can't think of it.

The Christmas Tree

Christmas tree, Christmas tree with lights so bright. They sparkle, twinkle, and shine in the night.

When Santa Claus comes he'll bring you a toy and you'll be happy and filled with joy.

Dear Santa,
Look out for bad weather on Christmas night. Our class has been studying weather and we are predicting foggy weather for you. I hope Rudolph guides you on your trip.

I hope you bring everybody gifts. Please don't bring anybody switches.

Your friend,
Dane Milligan
