

Myrie's Sentence Includes School Talks On Dangers Of Drugs

A prominent Southport resident found guilty in Brunswick County District Court last week of misdemeanor possession of marijuana and possession of drug paraphernalia must give talks to school children on the dangers of drugs.

Leslie Rolce Myrie Sr., 45, of 556 Jabbertown Road, has been ordered by District Court Judge David G. Wall to serve 24 hours of community service within 90 days. That service will include visits to local schools to discuss with children the dangers of drugs, according to documents on file at the Brunswick County Clerk of Court's office.

Myrie was charged by the Brunswick County Sheriff's Department following a vehicle search in June at a road narcotics checkpoint manned by the Sheriff's Department and the N.C. Highway Patrol. He pleaded not guilty in District Court last Tuesday, Dec. 17, but was found guilty on both charges by Judge Wall.

Myrie is past president of the Southport-Brunswick County Branch of the NAACP, was a governor's appointee to the Seafood Industrial Park Authority at Wanchese and served on the Brunswick County Resources Development Commission.

He was sentenced to 29 days in the Brunswick County Jail, suspended for two years, fined $100 and ordered to pay court costs. Judge Wall also ordered that Myrie not use, possess or consume any controlled substance and receive an evaluation from the Brunswick County Mental Health Department for controlled substance use.

The small amount of marijuana and drug paraphernalia found during the search was ordered destroyed.
