

CLUB BRIEFS

Group To Hear About 'Crack'

The Shallotte chapter of the Brunswick Challenge Committee will meet at 7 p.m. Tuesday, Feb. 4, in Room 155 of West Brunswick High School, N.C. 130, Shallotte.

The group is one of three branches in the county that works for drug-free activities for teenagers and community involvement in drug prevention.

An overview of "crack" cocaine will be presented at the meeting, said organizer Anthony Clemmons. The meeting is open to all concerned community members and parents.

Safety Is Focus

"Securing Your Home" will be the subject of discussion when Shallotte Police Officer Ray Altizer speaks to the Newcomers Club of South Brunswick on Thursday, Feb. 6.

The meeting begins at 7 p.m. in the cafeteria of The Brunswick Hospital, U.S. 17, Supply, and is open to all those who have lived in the South Brunswick Islands less than five years. Refreshments will be served.

Play Bridge

The Contract Bridge Group of the Newcomers Club of South Brunswick will meet Wednesday, Feb. 5, and Wednesday, Feb. 19, in the cafeteria of The Brunswick Hospital, U.S. 17, Supply.

Play begins at 7 p.m., and all area newcomers are welcome.

For information and to set up a bridge partner, call Kathleen Fiddler, 754-9449.

AARP To Meet

The Calabash chapter of AARP (American Association of Retired Persons) will meet Thursday, Feb. 6 in the Calabash fire station, Persimmon Road, at 7 p.m. Entertainment for the evening will be Roger Black and his choral group.

Chapter dues of $3 are due at this meeting. Also, reservations and payment for the luncheon meeting in March will be taken at the February meeting. Cost will be approximately $5.

Friends Gather

The West Brunswick Branch of Friends of the Library will meet at 1 p.m., Thursday, Feb. 6, at Shallotte Presbyterian Church, located directly behind the library in Shallotte.

This is the group's first meeting of the new year. Membership is open to all who are interested in supporting the library and its services. More information is available at the library, located on U.S. 17 business in Shallotte.

Seniors To Meet

The Towncreek Senior Citizens Club will meet at noon Thursday, Feb. 6, in Towncreek Park.

Visitors are welcome and members are asked to bring an "old fashioned bean and cornbread dinner." Slides on "Safe Driving on Country Roads" and "Alaska" will be shown by Tina Pritchard of Brunswick County Parks and Recreation Department.

Cast for 'Cabaret' Chosen

The cast for the Brunswick Little Theater production of Cabaret has been selected, following last week's final auditions.

Chosen for the principal roles are Vicki Bridgers (as Sally Bowles), Ken Campbell (as Master of Ceremonies), Thom Clemmons (as Cliff Bradshaw), Debbie Galdo (as Fraulein Schneider) and Phil Tate (as Herr Schultz).

Of the 31 parts to be filled in the play, director Curt Little said that three characters still remain uncast. Rehearsals are scheduled to begin at 1:30 p.m. Sunday, Feb. 2, at the Centennial Center, on the corner of Eighth and Lord Streets, Southport.

The local production of Cabaret is set to open Thursday, April 9, and run through Saturday, April 11.

To find out more on the remaining roles to be filled, or for ticket information, call Little, 919-457-0743, or Bob Hrdlicka, 919-278-4212.

Congressman Rose's Staffer To Be Here To Field Public Questions

A representative of Congressman Charlie Rose's "mobile office" will make two stops in Brunswick County next Wednesday, Feb. 5.

The staff member will be at the post offices in Supply from 9 a.m. to 11 a.m., and Bolivia from noon to 2 p.m.

A news release announcing the visit invites anyone who has a problem with a federal agency or questions about federal legislation to drop by at that time.

Rose has been sending his "mobile office", which is actually a recreational vehicle, to the five counties in the 7th Congressional District for nearly 20 years, the announcement said.

Questions or comments about federal activity can also be directed to Rose at 2230 Rayburn House Office Building, Washington, D.C. 20515, or his local office at 208 Post Office Building, Wilmington, N.C. 28401.

To Wed Feb. 29
