

Married 50 Years

Ivan (Bill) and Muriel Ward Bennett of Exum will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary Feb. 6. They were married at Fort Jackson, S.C., in 1942. The Bennetts will celebrate with their children, Vin, Dixie, Jill and Joy, and their two grandchildren.

Morton, Rogers Nuptials At Holden Beach Chapel

Amy Patricia Morton and John Allen Rogers were married Dec. 28, 1991, at Holden Beach Chapel, Holden Beach.

The bride is the daughter of Roger and Patricia Morton of Holden Beach.

The groom is the son of Warren Rogers and Wayne and Loretta Knight, all of Berkley, Mass.

The Rev. Franklin Myers officiated during the double-ring ceremony.

Maids of honor were Teresa Morton, sister-in-law of the bride, Tonya Spivey, and Angie Heustess. Bridesmaids were Gina Thomas, Lisa Turner, Julie Barbosa and Angie Morton Schills.

Best man was George Rogers, grandfather of the groom. Also serving as ushers were Todd Morton, John Dermody, Chris Nye, Tony Brownlee, Trevor Baker and Scott Curley.

Music for the ceremony was provided by pianist Linda Street performing O Perfect Love, and Ice Castles, trumpeter Chris Stanley performing Trumpet Voluntary, and vocalists Buddy Norris and Melissa Etheridge, who performed The Wedding Song, Only God Could Love You More, and Whither Thou Goest.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white satin sheath gown. It featured a high neck, tear-drop sleeves, a bodice beaded with pearls, embroidered lace and iridescents, and an open back draped with pearls.

Her pearl-laden headpiece had a fingertip veil with pouf. The bride carried a cascading bouquet of white lilies, bridal roses, freesia and astromeria.

Her attendants wore black satin sheath gowns with pearl-draped low cut backs and basque waistlines with peplum.

A reception was held for the couple following the ceremony at Lockwood Folly Golf Links Clubhouse with music provided by Starlight Entertainment.

The bride is a graduate of West Brunswick High School, Shallotte, and received a bachelor's degree in English at UNC-Wilmington. She is currently employed as an English teacher at North Brunswick High School, Leland.

The groom is a graduate of Middleboro High School, Middleboro, Mass., and after serving in the U.S. Marines, is currently employed at Brown Creek Correctional Institution, Polkton.

The newlyweds spent their honeymoon at Cobby Nob Resort, Gatlinburg, Tenn., and will relocate to Albemarle in June.
