

CLUB ACTIVITIES

Community Group Aims To Help Neighbors

The We Care Community Club of Shallotte will sponsor a black history program Saturday, Feb. 15, at 7 p.m. at Pleasant Hill Missionary Baptist Church, Shallotte.

The event will raise funds to help the club meet needs in the community, said spokeswoman Gracie Johnson, and is open to the public.

The Rev. Naoniel Fullwood of Bolivia will be the guest speaker for the event. The Brunswick County Choral Ensemble and Ms. Stephanie Hewett will provide music.

Meet Jointly

Two area lineage societies held a joint meeting Feb. 1 in Jacksonville at the Fisherman's Wharf Restaurant.

Mrs. J.H. Betz spoke on the Bill of Rights at the meeting of the Samuel Swann Chapter of the Colonial Dames of the 17th Century and Snap Dragon Chapter of U.S. Daughters of 1812.

Theodocia Musselwhite of Shallotte and Gwen Causey of Supply were among delegates elected to the state conference to be held March 13 and 14 at the Rocky Mount Sheraton Hotel.

Mrs. Causey, state USD 1812 president, outlined plans for that society's national meeting April 10-12 at the Radisson Hotel in Washington, D.C. She will head the North Carolina delegation to the session, which will celebrate the 100th anniversary of the founding of USD 1812.

Local women who were guests at the meeting are Helen Taylor of Winnabow and Esther Bullock of Delco.

Putting On The Glitz

North Myrtle Beach Christian Women's Club holds its annual February guest night Friday, Feb. 21, from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m. at the Surf Club in North Myrtle Beach, S.C.

Interested area women are invited, said Marjorie Harper.

Elegant evening wear from a Grand Strand shop will be featured in keeping with the theme, "Putting On The Glitz". Professional musicians Pat and Al Hatcher will perform. The featured speaker will be Jack Matthews, a real estate sales manager and father of five from Columbia, S.C.

Cost is $13.50 per person. Local women can make required reservations and cancellations by calling Louise Blizzard, 579-2562.

The Surf Club is located at 1701 Springland Lane.

Auxiliary To Meet

The Ladies Auxiliary of Calabash VFW Post 7288 will hold its next covered dish dinner Saturday, Feb. 15, at 6 p.m. at the post, with a Valentine's theme, said spokesperson Mary Benes.

The auxiliaries will next meet Monday, Feb. 17, at the post at 6:30 p.m. for officers and 7:30 p.m. for regular members.

Ms. Benes also announced that at the district meeting in Leland recently, the Calabash auxiliary was presented a certificate for completing 100 percent membership in January. The group was complimented as well for being the only post that sends copies of all publicity to the district publicity chairperson.

Homemakers Meet

The Guys and Dolls Homemakers Extension Club recently appointed committee chairpersons for the coming year.

Serving are the following: Bill and Thelma Dunn, family; John and Alda Lewis and Jo DiCarlo, cultural arts; Jean and Ed Robinson, environment; Al DiCarlo, publicity; and Harold Hoy, chaplain.

DiCarlo announced that 221 hours of volunteer service were given by club members in December and January.

Guests Speak

Program Chairman Bob Johnson of the South Brunswick Isle's Civitan Club has announced featured speakers for some upcoming meetings.

Thursday, Feb. 20, guest Stephen Asner will discuss "Thunderstorm In A Box."

At the Thursday, March 19 meeting, Napoleon "Poli" Barefoot, 13th District Court judge, will speak on "Sentencing In District Court."

The club holds luncheon meetings the first and third Thursday of each month at the Brunswick County Bowling Center, Shallotte, from 1 p.m. to 2 p.m.

Call Johnson, 754-5759, for more information, or 1-800-CIVITAN.

For The Birds

Marge Harper, local naturalist, will be guest speaker when the Brunswick Bird Club meets Wednesday, Feb. 19, at 7:30 p.m. in the meeting room of Atlantic Telephone Membership Corporation on N.C. 130 West of Shallotte.

Mrs. Harper will speak and show slides on "Wildflowers of North Carolina." Call Marcia Warring, 579-9474, for information.

Location Changes

A shell wreath workshop scheduled Wednesday, Feb. 19, by the Holden Beach Beautification Committee is moving to a new location.

The session will be held at Holden Beach Town Hall, starting at 10 a.m., instead of Lockwood Folly Community Center as announced last week.

Information on materials needed is available from Margaret Vasco, 842-9282, or Judy Bryan.

Pageant Slated

The Varnamtown Club is accepting applications for The Lockwood Folly Pageant until Friday, March 6, announced pageant director Mary Dawson.

Girls and boys ages four to seven will compete in their Sunday best and in sports wear. Mrs. Dawson said, and girls ages eight to 18 will compete in talent, evening or party dress and sports wear categories.

The application fee is $25 for residents of the Lockwood Folly area and will go to help fund the 1992 Varnamtown Birthday Festival in September.

For information, Mrs. Dawson welcomes calls at 842-6323.

A Prize Winner

Merle Goldsberry, poppy chairwoman for the Ladies Auxiliary of VFW Post 7288 in Calabash, models the bonnet she fashioned out of 417 "Buddy poppies". The hat won first place honors at the district meeting in Leland Feb. 2. Mrs. Goldsberry's hat will now compete with other poppy headgear at the state council meeting Feb. 14 through 16.

Serving Dinner

Grissetown/Longwood Volunteer Fire Department will serve barbecue dinners from 11 a.m. to 6 p.m. Friday and Saturday, Feb. 14 and 15, to raise funds for the department, announced Judy Clemmons, chairperson of the ladies auxiliary.

Plates will cost $3 each, and will consist of barbecue, cole slaw, candied yams and hush puppies, she said.

To place large orders before the event, call Chief Jimmy Clemmons at 287-6686. To place orders Friday or Saturday, call the fire house at 287-3030.

To Wed Feb. 15

Paul and Rachel Johnson of Shallotte have announced the upcoming wedding of their daughter, Mona Johnson, to Tony Gibson, son of Virginia Gribble of Bryson City. The ceremony is planned 7 p.m. Saturday, Feb. 15, at the Holiday Inn, Cherokee. After a honeymoon in Jamaica, the couple will reside in Charlotte.
