

Classroom Winners Announced As Spelling Bee Action Begins

Classroom winners in the first round of the 1992 Brunswick County Spelling Bee have been announced.

Winners will advance to grade-level bees scheduled Thursday, March 5.

From those contests, 17 grade-level winners from 6 schools will advance to the county championship, to be held Thursday, April 2, at Bolivia Elementary School, said Debbie Lemon, bee coordinator.

The county bee is a preliminary of the National Spelling Bee held each spring in Washington, D.C., and sponsored by Scripps-Howard. The Shallotte Junior Woman's Club and the State Port Pilot of Southport co-sponsor the local bee.

The classroom winners are as follows, by school:
