

Supply Man Ordered To Pay $3,096 In Unpaid Income Taxes

A Supply man has been ordered to pay the N.C. Department of Revenue $3,096 in delinquent income tax withholdings that were not paid last year.

Roger D. Robinson, of Route 2, pleaded guilty to failure to file a tax return and two counts of willful failure to pay taxes.

According to the warrants filed Nov. 19 by T.G. Haley of the N.C. Department of Revenue office in Shallotte, Robinson failed to pay income taxes in 1986 and 1987.

Robinson, who owns a logging company, also failed to pay income taxes withheld from employee paychecks in July 1991, the warrants state.

Brunswick County District Court Judge D. Jack Hooks Jr. sentenced Robinson to two years in prison, suspended the sentence for two years and ordered that he properly file any income withholdings on time.

He was also ordered to pay the $3,096 within 30 days plus a $100 fine and court costs.

The warrants state that Robinson had sufficient income requiring him to file and pay income taxes in 1986 and 1987.

The deadline for filing 1991 income tax returns is April 15.

Judge Hooks also heard the following cases for the period Feb. 17-19:
