

CHRISTY KING (14) penetrated a lot of stiff defenses this season as the leading scorer for West's Last Trojans.

MONICA KING (13) was a defensive leader for West Brunswick, blocking three shots a game and helping lead the Lady Trojans to a 20-6 season.

Bryant Heads All-County Girls' Basketball Team

BY DOUG RUTTER

South Brunswick's Erika Bryant has been named county girls' basketball player of the year after leading the Lady Cougars to a 20-6 record—their best finish in school history.

Bryant, a 5-foot-11-inch sophomore, heads up an all-county team comprised of three players from South Brunswick and two from West Brunswick, which also finished at 20-6.

Also chosen for the squad, selected by The Brunswick Beacon and State Port Pilot newspapers, were Stacie Isenberg and Alison Cumbee from South and Christy King and Monica King from West Brunswick.

South Brunswick Coach Mike Isenberg was named county coach of the year for the second straight season after leading the Lady Cougars to the Waccamaw Conference tournament championship and sectional finals of the state playoffs.

"It's an honor, but I'm more proud of the team," Isenberg said Monday. "I would gladly trade this for another win or two. The team really came along."

West Brunswick Coach Brenda Council was a close second for coach of the year honors after guiding her team to a share of the regular-season conference championship. It was the school's first since 1979.

Bryant averaged 14 points and nine rebounds per game this year for South Brunswick, and scored at least 13 points in each of the last 12 games.

Coach Isenberg said the young center scored eight points per game last year and averaged seven rebounds.

"She would get flustered occasionally and I would have to put her on the bench," Isenberg said. "But this season has been different and she has been so consistent."

Cumbee, the only senior on South Brunswick's squad, was selected to the all-county team for the second consecutive year. She scored 9.8 points per game this year and tied back-court mate Isenberg for most steals on the team.

"A lot of times when she made a steal or two that got us going," Coach Isenberg said. "Offensively she wasn't on par with a year ago but she had her best game with five three-pointers and 28 points against West Columbus. She was playing hurt a lot."

The South Brunswick mentor described Cumbee as an "excellent" free throw shooter, making 77 percent of her attempts in the fourth quarter.

Isenberg, the stepdaughter of Coach Isenberg, handled point guard duties for South as a junior and earned her second selection to the all-county team.

Coach Isenberg said she "did a good job handling the ball and leading the team doing a lot of things that would please other coaches but not necessarily the fans. She played excellent defense and had the lowest turnover ratio."

West Brunswick's King girls, who are cousins, both used their quickness this season to score consistently and play tough defense for the Lady Trojans.

Christy, a three-time selection to the all-county squad, averaged 14 points, five rebounds and four steals per game as a senior at West Brunswick.

"Her strong point is definitely her quickness," Coach Council said. "Compared to her previous years she has made great improvement in her scoring and defense and being an overall team player."

Monica King averaged 11 points, eight rebounds and three blocked shots per game as a junior. Coach Council said her jumping ability and quickness make her a strong player.

ERIKA BRYANT (40) averaged nine rebounds and 14 points per game as a sophomore at South Brunswick, where the future of girls' basketball looks bright.

STACIE ISENBERG (23) was a key to South's success this season, playing good defense and orchestrating the offense as point guard.
