West Brunswick Girls Lead Six-Team Track Field

BY DOUG RUTTER

The West Brunswick girls' track team won its third straight conference meet last Thursday, leading a field of six teams with 116 points.

Irene Johnson led the Lady Trojans with wins in the 200-meter run and triple jump. She also competed on the winning 800-meter relay team.

Melissa Johnson won the 400-meter run, Laura Hill won the 300-meter hurdles and Medina Moore won the 100-meter hurdles for West.

South Brunswick finished second with 80 points, getting wins in the shot put and 3200-meter relay.

North Brunswick won the long jump, 100-meter dash and 1600-meter relay and edged East Bladen for third place 77-76. Fairmont had 71 points and West Columbus had 42.

The West Columbus boys made up for the last-place finish by the girls by racking up 189 points for an easy win.

North Brunswick finished second with 152 points. The Scorpions won seven events including the high jump, triple jump, pole vault, 200-meter run, 800-meter run and 800-meter and 3200-meter relays.

East Bladen was third with 80, followed by South Brunswick with 45, West Brunswick with 34 and Fairmont with 25.

The only Waccamaw 2-A Conference team missing from the meet was Whiteville, which was out of school last Thursday on Easter break.

With other schools on spring vacation this week, conference track and field competition resumes April 28 at South Brunswick and West Brunswick.
