

CLUB BRIEFS

Two Local Pilot Club Members Will Hold N.C. State Office

Two local Pilots will be installed as state officers when the Pilot Club of South Brunswick Islands Inc. attends the 53rd North Carolina District Convention at the Sheraton Imperial Hotel at Research Triangle Park May 1-3.

Sherry Roseman will be installed Saturday night as the district's next governor, and Nellie Westbrook will be installed as her district secretary.

Others attending will include Mary Harrelson, Andy Roseman and Richard Westbrook.

Voting delegates will be Martha Jo Hall, Bonnie Adams and Rosie Scarborough, with Pat Hassler, Wendy Milazzo and Sue Chapman as alternates.

"Harvesting A World of Pilot Friendship" is the theme of the event.

Angela Langley, the N.C. Disabled Professional Woman of the Year, will be honored during the Awards Luncheon, when club awards will also be presented.

Pilot International is a service organization for business and professional women.

Birds Are Topic

The Calabash Chapter of the American Association of Retired

Persons (AARP) will meet Thursday, May 7, at 7 p.m. at the Calabash fire station on Persimmon Road.

Dave Harper of Shallotte will present a program on "Wild Birds of the Carolinas".

Preparations will continue for the silent auction to be held at the June meeting.

Guests are invited to the meeting and refreshments will be served afterward, said spokesman Maragret Chroniger.

Vasco Recognized

Holden Beach Mayor Wally Ausley presented a plaque from the Holden Beach Board of Commissioners to Margaret Vasco, retiring chairperson, at the April 15 meeting of the Holden Beach Beautification Committee.

VASCO

The plaque was in recognition of six years of dedicated leadership.

Newly elected officers will be installed at a luncheon at 11:30 a.m.

May 6 at Sea Trail Plantation's Maple Clubhouse. The officers are Diane Clark, chairperson; Judy Bryan, co-chairperson; Daphne Fournier, assistant co-chairperson; and Charlotte Pringle, secretary-treasurer.

DAR Workshop Set

Representatives of two local chapters of the North Carolina Society, Daughters of the American Revolution, are expected to participate in a District IX workshop May 12 at Josef's Restaurant near Kenansville.

District IX comprises 16 chapters, including the William Gause Chapter of Shallotte and the Brunswick Town Chapter of Southport.

Workshop registration is at 9:30 a.m. followed by the meeting at 10 a.m. and lunch at 1 p.m., with chapter officers, committee chairmen and members expected to attend.

Boosters Seek Help

The Oak Island Library Boosters Inc., a non-profit group formed to help establish a library on Oak Island, has raised $36,000 toward its goal, with a second auction planned in the near future.

However, the group says more volunteers and monies or a site is needed to make the branch library a reality.

Anyone interested in assisting the effort can contact any board member: Ann Hines, Becky Malik, Howard and Jane Brackett, Kim Skipper, Dr. Brad Williams, Tom Owens, Leslie Collier, John Wilson, David Buchman, Lou Anne Hoy, Tillie Sugg and Betty Johnson or write the Oak Island Library Boosters at P.O. Box 388, Long Beach, N.C. 28465.

Paper Sale Slated

Brunswick County Shriners will hold their annual paper sale Friday and Saturday, May 1 and 2, at shopping centers throughout the county.

Club members will be accepting donations for the Shrine Club newspaper, with proceeds to benefit

Shriners Hospitals for Crippled and Burned Children.

Billy Tripp of Shallotte, district public relations officer, said 28 children from Brunswick County are presently being treated at the Shriners Orthopedic Hospital in Greenville, S.C.

If you know a crippled child who needs expert medical care provided at no cost, call the Shrine Club toll free at 1-800-237-5055.

Auxiliary Officers Meet

Officers and committee chairpersons of Calabash Elks Lodge No.

2679 Auxiliary will meet Thursday, May 7, at 7:30 p.m. at the lodge, announced Mary L. Noorigian, president.

The group's exercise class at the lodge will not meet Saturday, May 2, because of the Elks' pancake breakfast.

The class, which is open to the public, meets Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays from 9 a.m. to 10 a.m. at the lodge for exercise, dancercise, jazzercise, yoga and relaxation. Participants bring their own towel or mat.

CEDAR GROVE AREA NEWS

Community Wins With Hog

BY BARBARA T. HEWETT

HEWETT

Everyone has been trying to win a whole hog donated by Denver Bryant to benefit the Cedar Grove Improvement Association.

A retired military man, he came back to his roots in Supply's Cedar Grove Community after being away for 30 years.

He enjoys participating in many of the projects of the Association, the latest being the fund-raiser featuring the hog.

Last chance to participate was April 24 at the dinner and bake sale at the Emmetts'. Regardless of who wins the whole hog, the entire Cedar Grove Community wins as a result of the project.

The Association will hold its regular monthly meeting Friday, May 2, at 7:30 p.m. in the dining hall at Cedar Grove Missionary Baptist Church.

She's Talented

Rayshietta Hewett is proving to be more than simply a Sunday school choir member and Youth Day usher president.

She has recently used her computer skills to help prepare the Cedar Grove Area community news column.

A student at Brunswick Community College, she plans to earn a bachelor's degree and become a registered nurse.

Her mother, Lynette McKenzie, knows she can be depended upon to supervise younger sisters and brothers Courtney, Tangela and Rusty in her spare time when the day ends at the college and her extracurricular activities are completed.

Tune In

Be sure to listen to WVCB (1410 AM) Radio Station in Shallotte for the Cedar Grove Area News Thursdays at 3 p.m. and Saturdays at 10:15 a.m.

On Sunday evenings listen for the Moments of Inspiration gospel music ministry.
