

South Wins Waccamaw Golf Title

South Brunswick won the Waccamaw 2-A Conference golf championship Monday at Lockwood Golf Links with a 33-shot victory in the season's final event.

Medalist Jeff Howard led the Cougars with an 83. Other South Brunswick scores included Andy Broadwell with 85, Brandon Vannoy with 87 and Pat Jones with 88.

South Brunswick's team won the conference title by 112 strokes over runner-up West Brunswick. Whiteville finished 16 shots behind the Trojans in third place.

East Bladen's Cougars finished fourth overall, followed by Fairmont, North Brunswick and West Columbus.

In Monday's tournament, Whiteville finished second to South Brunswick's 343 team score. East Bladen was third, followed by West Brunswick, North Brunswick, Fairmont and West Columbus.

South Brunswick's Vannoy won the conference individual title with an average of 80.5 strokes per round.

Others earning all-conference honors were John Phillips of Whiteville with 81.67 strokes per round; South's Howard, 82.17; West Brunswick's Jeremy Grainger, 83.0; South's Daniel Kopp, 83.5; and South's Jones, 83.5.

Golfers receiving honorable mention included South's Broadwell with an 84.83 average and West's Joey Stadick with an average of 87 shots per round.

North Brunswick's Scott Roberts also received honorable mention with an 84.83 average. The Scorpions finished 405 shots out of first place in its first year on the Waccamaw Conference golf circuit.

At Land O' Lakes
South Brunswick helped set itself up for the conference title last Tuesday when it shot a school-record 311 at Land O' Lakes Golf Course near Whiteville.

The Cougars won the tournament by 13 strokes over second-place East Bladen. West Brunswick placed third with a team score of 329.

Whiteville finished fourth at 334, followed by Fairmont at 356 and North Brunswick at 371. Tournament host West Columbus was last with a score of 378.

East Bladen's Brian Tart was the tournament medalist with a 75. Leading South Brunswick golfers were Vannoy and Jones with matching 76s and Howard with 77.

Grainger led West Brunswick with a 77, and Tony Shreve fired a 79. North Brunswick's Roberts led the Scorpions with a 79.

The school-record performance gave South Brunswick a 24-shot lead over West Brunswick going into the conference championship Monday.

ence title. The Trojans carded an impressive 297, which was 14 strokes better than South's total this year.

South Brunswick, West Brunswick and Whiteville will compete in the East Regional tournament Monday, May 4, at Rock Creek Golf Club in Jacksonville.

The top three teams and top four individual scorers from the region will advance to the state tournament May 11 and 12 in Chapel Hill.
