ENTERTAINMENT BRIEFS

Brunswick Band Plans Benefit Concert

The Brunswick Concert Band will make its first concert appearance in Shallotte at 3 p.m., Sunday, May 17, in the Shallotte Middle School cafeteria. The concert is in support of Brunswick Adult Day Care centers in Shallotte and Southport.

Donation tickets are $5 for adults, $3 for students, and children under 10 are admitted free. Tickets are available at the Brunswick Adult Day Care Center in Shallotte (754-2463) or from Katherine Shawver (754-6129) or Isobel Beebe (845-2269). Some tickets may also be obtained at The Brunswick Beacon office and at First Investors in Shallotte.

The Brunswick Concert Band has been in existence for five years, appearing primarily in the Southport area. Members include residents of both Brunswick and New Hanover counties who enjoy making music together under the direction of Paul Pittenger of Southport. New members are welcome. Call Mary Campbell (457-6363) or Donna Massingale (842-3233 after 6:30 p.m.) for more information.

Reid Performs Tonight

Pamela Reid, former visiting artist at Brunswick Community College, will present the music-and-dance production, Sweet Soul Music at Southeastern Community College (SCC) at Whiteville at 8 p.m. today (Thursday) in the college auditorium, the final show of the SCC Performing Arts Series.

The show is a combination of popular jazz tunes of the 40s and 50s, and rhythm and blues from the 60s, featuring two backing vocalists, a dancer and a five-piece rhythm section with Reid.

Musical selections to be included are Them There Eyes, God Bless the Child, Heard It Through the Grapevine, and Stop in the Name of Love.

Admission is $5 at the door or by Performing Arts Series season ticket. For information, contact series director Dick Burkhardt at SCC, 919-642-7141.

School Bands Perform

Bands at two local schools will present their spring concerts this month, director Craig Morris announced.

The West Brunswick High School band will perform at 7 p.m. May 11 in the school gym, in conjunction with the school chorus directed by Cheryl Skaggs.

On May 18, the Waccamaw Elementary School band will present its concert at a PTO meeting, at 7:30 p.m.

The high school band will hold its award banquet at 6:30 p.m. May 21 in the school cafeteria.

Viewing Slated

The film Landscape in Brunswick County will be shown at Brunswick Community College in the teaching auditorium Friday, May 8, from noon to 12:30 p.m., 1 p.m. to 1:30 p.m. and 2 p.m. to 2:30 p.m. The 6 p.m. to 7 p.m. showing has been canceled.

The videotape of the arts event may be checked out from the college library. For more information, call Sharon Dodge at 754-6900, 457-6329 and 343-0203.

Blue Crab Festival Seeks Volunteers

Like to help out?

If so, the Little River Chamber of Commerce and the Blue Crab Festival would like to know. They're looking for volunteers for the 11th annual Blue Crab Festival to be held May 16 and 17 from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. at the Little River waterfront.

Volunteers are needed to assist with ticket, T-shirt and soft drink sales, parking, registration and other duties.

Anyone interested in volunteering is asked to call the chamber office at 803-249-6604, said Elizabeth Teal, chamber executive.
