St. James Episcopal Church Ground-Breaking Set May 20

The people of St. James the Fisherman Episcopal Church in Shallotte will celebrate the start of construction of their new worship/classroom/office building with a ground-breaking service at 6 p.m. Wednesday, May 20, to which the public is invited.

This building is a result of three years of planning by the parish, said the rector, the Rev. Richard W. Warner Jr. Upon completion it will include a worship space with seating for 1450 in the nave, two new classrooms and office space. The project is scheduled for completion by Easter 1993.

To Hear Local Woman

Johnnie Smith of Holden Beach will be the featured speaker Saturday, May 16, when the Southport Women's Aglow Fellowship meets at 10 a.m. at Western Sizzlin' Steakhouse, Long Beach Road, Southport.

All women and teen-age girls are welcome and a ministry is offered to the hearing impaired.

Lunch is available after the meeting.

Two-Day Revival Set

Lighthouse Independent Baptist

Church will hold revival services May 15 and 16, with the Rev. Fletcher Manuel of Madison as the guest evangelist.

Services will be at 7 p.m. at the church on Stanley Road in Supply, with special music planned and a nursery provided.

"We're going to have old-fashioned gospel preaching," said the pastor, Danny Hawkins.

Gore Wins Pageant

Travis Gore won the Ocean View Baptist Association Little Miss/Master Dynamic Pageant recently.

GORE

The son of Shelia Gore of Longwood, he is a first grade pupil at Waccamaw Elementary School. Travis attends Mt. Zion Baptist Church in Longwood, where he recites his learned Bible verse every Sunday during children's hour.

Along with other children from across the state, Travis will travel to the All-Baptist Convention in Winston-Salem July 27-30 to present his talent.

Indoor Yard Sale Set

An indoor "yard" and bake sale will be held Saturday, May 23, from 8 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. at Seaside United Methodist Church.

The church is located on N.C. 179 one-quarter mile east of the Ocean Isle Beach Causeway.

Proceeds will go to the new church kitchen, said spokesman Versie Spangler.

The church is building at a location on N.C. 904 between Grissetown and Sunset Beach.

McCann At Chapel

The Rev. Tom McCann, a Baptist minister from Martinsville, Va., is the pastor of the week at The Holden Beach Chapel.

He will lead worship Sunday, May 17, at 11 a.m. at the chapel, which is located on Rothschild Street across from the Holden Beach Town Hall.

Sunday school is at 10 a.m. and a nursery is provided each Sunday.

Mission Now A Church

As of May 3, the former Holden

Beach Baptist Mission is now a constituted church of the Brunswick Baptist Association.

Its new name is Brunswick Islands Baptist Church. The congregation is temporarily meeting next to the True Value Hardware Store on Holden Beach Road (N.C. 130), said Mrs. Charles Zenzer.

Services include Sunday school at 10 a.m. for all ages; Sunday worship at 11 a.m. and 7 p.m. and Wednesday prayer meeting at 7 p.m.

A family night is held the second Wednesday of every month at 6 p.m. After a covered dish dinner, then the women, men and children of all ages meet.

The church will also sponsor a resort ministry at Holden Beach, at Campground by the Sea, starting Sunday, May 24, and continuing through Labor Day weekend. That service will be held at 8:30 a.m.

Serving Barbecue

Bethel United Methodist Church in Bolivia will serve home-cooked pork barbecue dinners Saturday, May 16, at the church, starting at 10 a.m.

The menu will include barbecue, coleslaw, potato salad and hushpuppies. Plates are $3.50 each, with take-outs available.

A yard sale is planned in conjunction with the dinner, said spokesman Mayzell Bullard.

Seaside Services

Three services with Gerald Davis of Petersburg, Va., are scheduled at Seaside Christian Fellowship Church at Seaside this week.

Davis' message of the restoration of God's church and a prophetic voice for the church will be the topic of services held Sunday, May 17, at 11 a.m. and 7 p.m. and again Monday, May 18, at 7 p.m.

Pastor Dwight Reeves invites everyone to attend.
