STILL TAKING ENTRIES

Rotary Tournament's Saturday

Entries are still being accepted for Saturday's fifth annual South Brunswick Islands Rotary Club Golf Tournament.

The 18-hole, captain's choice event at Sandpiper Bay Golf and Country Club begins with an 8:30 a.m. shotgun start.

The entry fee of $50 per person or $200 per foursome covers awards, refreshments, door prizes and plenty of food after the tournament. Men's and women's teams are welcome.

All proceeds will benefit Rotary Club charities including the Brunswick County Literacy Council, Lake Waccamaw Boys and Girls Home,

Hope Harbor Home, local rescue squads and other groups throughout the county.

Sandpiper Bay is located on the Old Georgetown Road near Calabash.

For more information, call the pro shop at 579-9120 or tournament chairman Jimmy Sanderford at 579-3586.

Literacy Council Sets Golf Tournament

The Brunswick County Literacy Council will hold a benefit golf tournament Sunday, July 26, at Carolina Shores Golf and Country Club at Calabash, co-sponsored by the course.

Tee times for the captain's choice event are available from 10:52 a.m. until 1 p.m., said Chairman Joe Giamalva.

The entry fee is $25 per player or $100 per team. Mixed foursomes are welcome, and golfers can sign up individually to be placed on a team.

The tournament field will be limited to 144 players, or 36 foursomes, and all proceeds will be used to help adults improve their reading skills.

For more information, or to register, call Giamalva at 579-2921 or the literacy council office at 754-READ. Also, registration forms are available at area golf courses starting this week.

Golf Team Boosters Tourney Postponed

The West Brunswick Golf Boosters Tournament scheduled Saturday, June 20, at Brick Landing Plantation has been postponed by West Brunswick Golf Coach Will Cockrell.

All entry fees and other donations have been returned pending a new date for the tournament.

Cockrell, who was recently released from the hospital with restricted work instructions, plans for a late summer or early fall date.

More information will be available at a later date. Questions may be referred to Cockrell at 919-754-8448.
