If It Makes Sense To Refinance Your House Today, Why Not Refinance Your Car?

A lot of people are taking advantage of the low interest rates to refinance their homes. But why stop there?

Your car, after all, is probably the second-biggest investment you make in your life. So why not save all the money you can?

The fact is, if you financed your new car just one or two years ago, you're probably paying anywhere from 9 1/2 to 12%. By refinancing now, you can probably save hundreds of dollars over the life of your loan.

But the savings get even better if you let us make it a Tax Advantage Loan.

How much better? Take a look at the chart on the right. Then call or stop in at your nearest Southern National office.

But don't delay. Rates this low don't happen often. And wouldn't you just hate yourself if you missed out?
