Aerobics, Music, Stories On Department's Agenda

The Brunswick County Parks and Recreation Department has a new aerobics class for teens, a story-telling workshop and a trip to see Doc Severinsen on its agenda.

The Severinsen concert will be Saturday, Feb. 27, at 8 p.m. at Reynolds Coliseum in Raleigh. Tickets are on sale for $7 at the recreation department in Bolivia; transportation is not included.

A low-impact aerobics class will be held at North Brunswick High School for grades 9 through 12 on Mondays and Wednesdays from 4:30-5:30 p.m. It will be taught by a certified aerobics instructor.

It will begin on Monday, March 1 and will cost $15 per month or $3 per class drop-in fee.

Participants can register at the first class. Anyone under 18 must have parents' permission.

A story-telling workshop will be offered on Monday, March 29, which is scheduled as a county-wide teachers' work day.

Children in kindergarten through fourth grade may participate at two locations: the Shallotte Library, 1-1:45 p.m., or the Southport Library, 10-10:45 a.m.

Pre-register by calling the recreation department. There is no fee.

Tickets for Bella Davidovich and the Danish National Radio Symphony Orchestra are still available.

The concert will be Saturday, April 24 and transportation will be provided by the department.

Tickets are $7, and transportation fee is $6.

For more information about these programs, call Emma T. McGraw at 1-800-222-4790 or 253-4357.

Quilt Show March 20-21

Quilters-by-the-Sea quilt guild will host its 11th annual quilt show on March 20-21 at the Coastline Convention Center in Wilmington.

Show hours will be from 9 a.m. until 5 p.m. Saturday and 1-5 p.m. on Sunday. Admission will be $2 for adults and $1 for children.

More than 100 bed quilts, wall hangings and quilted items will be displayed. Vendors selling fabric and quilting notions, and guild members providing craft booths and educational demonstrations will be available during the show.

Girl Scouts Friendship Day Saturday

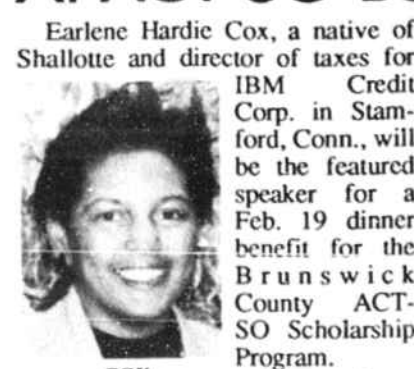

The Girl Scouts of Brunswick County will celebrate World Friendship Day on Saturday, Feb. 20, at the Brunswick County Government Complex public assembly building in Bolivia.

The festivities will take place from 10 a.m. until 2 p.m.

Each troop has chosen a country to represent. Girls will be dressed in their countries' clothing and will serve native foods. Some will perform dances, games or plays from their chosen countries.

The public is invited.

Shallotte Native To Speak At ACT-SO Benefit Dinner

Earlene Hardie Cox, a native of Shallotte and director of taxes for IBM Credit Corp. in Stamford, Conn., will be the featured speaker for a Feb. 19 dinner benefit for the Brunswick County ACT-SO Scholarship Program.

The dinner begins at 7:30 p.m. in the Public Assembly Building of the Brunswick County Government Center at Bolivia.

A graduate of Shallotte High School who also attended Union High School, Cox holds a baccalaureate degree from the University of North Carolina at Greensboro and a juris doctorate from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. She has completed post graduate studies at Pace University in New York.

The Armonk, N.Y., resident joined IBM in 1978 as a tax attorney in the corporate tax department and has since held various legal positions as well as international tax and financial management posts. She was named to her current position in 1989.

Cox is a member of the American and New York Bar Associations and the Tax Executive Institute. She is married, with two children, and also serves as vice president of the board of directors of a 250-space day care center.

ACT-SO is the acronym for Afro Academic, Cultural, Technological Scientific Olympics. It is a major project of the NAACP for encouraging and inspiring young people to aspire to excellence in their academic and cultural pursuits while benefiting from the maximum support of their community, said spokesman Perita B. Price.

Brunswick County's ACT-SO program is now in its 13th year and has had two national winners.

In addition to speaking at the dinner, Cox will host a self esteem and motivational session for children Thursday, Feb. 18, at 6 p.m. at the Public Assembly Building. A question and answer period will be included.

For more information contact Perita B. Price at 253-4301 at the Brunswick County Public Housing Department.

Space Camp, Here They Come

Local youngsters ages 10 to 15 interested in space exploration and space careers could be among 40 children invited to participate in 4-H's Missions in Space Program April 15-18 at Space Camp, Kennedy Space Center, Fla.

"Our primary objective with the program is to get kids excited about science and help them see all the exciting careers they can aim for if they stay in school," said John Schultze, program coordinator.

Participants will have the opportunity to experience astronaut training simulators, space shuttle mission simulation and an Imax giant screen space movie. They'll also learn about the history of space exploration and science experiments in the Discovery lab. They will tour Kennedy Space Center and follow the process of preparing a shuttle for launch. The newest shuttle, the Endeavor, is scheduled to be on the launch pad during the stay.

All transportation, meals, tours, programs and lodging are included in the $260 fee.

Parents with children interested in participating in this program can receive registration materials or more information by calling Billy Privette, extension agent 4-H, at the Brunswick County Cooperative Extension Service Center in Bolivia, 253-4425. Students need not be in 4-H to participate.

Birth Announced

Michael and Melissa Crumbley of Supply have announced the birth of a son, Zachary Shane, at 1:19 p.m. Feb. 10. The baby weighed 7 pounds, 3 ounces.

Grandparents are Sally and Bud McDaniel and Leona and Floyd Crumbley.

To Wed March 27

Ted L. Setzer of Conover and Pat M. Setzer of Claremont have announced the engagement of their daughter, Beth Elaine, to Jody Lane Sims of Newton. The groom-elect is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn P. Sims of Holden Beach. The couple will be married March 27 at Trinity United Church of Christ in Conover.
