Finals Are Slated Thursday In Middle School Basketball

Brunswick County middle school basketball season ends Thursday with the finals of the county tournament at Leland Middle School.

The girls' championship game starts at 6 p.m. and will be followed by the boys' final at 7:15 p.m., said County Schools Athletic Director Nelson Best.

On Monday, South Brunswick Middle's boys and girls advanced to the finals with wins over Shallotte Middle School.

Sheba Fullwood scored 15 points to lead the South girls to a 33-19 win. Nicholas Johnson and Carlon Parker scored eight points each to lead the South Brunswick boys to a 35-28 upset win.

Waccamaw and Leland were scheduled to square off Tuesday night in girls and boys first-round tournament games. The winners will take on South Middle for the county championships.

Best said both the tournament and regular-season champions will receive team trophies following Thursday's games.

South Middle's girls won the regular-season title with an 8-1 record. Leland Middle won the boys' crown with an 8-1 mark.

Also Thursday, certificates will be awarded to members of the all-county teams selected by coaches.
