GUEST SPEAKER:

Jerry King and his wife Lisa live in Calabash. He is employed at Brunswick Plantation in golf course maintenance. After dropping out of high school at age 16, he joined the Marines and at age 17 found himself facing a 60-year prison sentence.

Jerry spent the next 15 years in the N.C. prison system, during which he met Jesus Christ as his savior. His prayers for a Christian wife were answered when he met Lisa in 1988. Inflated hopes of release, however, were met with denial of parole for 7 years. This long trial resulted in Jerry's full surrender of himself and his circumstances to his Heavenly Father.

Jerry was release one year ago after having spent almost half of his life in prison. But the Lord has performed a supernatural adjustment and has been faithful to provide a new job, a new home, and a new beginning.

We extend an invitation to the public to come hear how the Lord has blessed Jerry King.

JERRY KING

Robert Paul Lamb—June 6-9

A prolific author, Robert Paul Lamb is active in both writing and preaching about Jesus Christ and the Christian experience. More than four million copies of his 28 books are currently in print.

A vibrant preacher of the Gospel with a unique sense of humor and a special gift of prophecy, he has traveled widely throughout the United States and overseas since accepting a call to the ministry in 1972.

He holds the distinction of having written the biographies of some of the most diverse Christian personalities of the era. He has appeared on the "700 Club" and numerous other Christian television programs.

His wife, Debbie, an accomplished singer and musician, has recorded three inspirational albums. She has an exceptional anointing in music for ushering the Presence of the Lord into services and in speaking to women's groups.

Come hear this skillful, energetic communicator proclaim a powerful Gospel message accentuated by the Gifts of the Holy Spirit, especially in prophecy, the word of Wisdom, and words of knowledge.
