CHURCH ACTIVITIES

Aglow Speakers To Address Bible Prophecy And Israel

David and Ziva Rutherford of Richmond, Va., will be guest speakers for a special evening meeting of the Shallotte Women's Aglow Fellowship Thursday, Oct. 14.

Z. RUTHERFORD

The meeting will be held at 7 p.m. at Family House Restaurant, Main Street, Shallotte. Fellowship and refreshments will be available beginning at 6:30 p.m.

Men, women and teen-agers are invited to hear the two discuss Bible prophecy and how current news events relate to Israel.

Mrs. Rutherford, a native of Jerusalem, Israel, is a Messianic Jew. From her childhood she remembers the horrors of the Holocaust. She also served required time in the Israeli Army. As a young woman, she came to New York where she became a successful model. It was on an airplane coming to the United States that she was witnessed to by Hal Lindsey and became a Messianic Jew.

Her husband, David, has ministered in meetings in North Carolina and Virginia and "has seen many people healed, delivered and saved by God's power," said Aglow President Jean Barber.

For more information contact Barber nights at 579-6623, or Irene McCrackin at 287-3814.
