

Golden Anniversary

Alex and Jean Mearns of Calabash celebrated their golden wedding anniversary recently. The couple exchanged vows March 18, 1944 in Glasgow, Scotland, and have spent their 50 years together in Scotland, Australia and the U.S. They have a son, Dr. Robert D. Means of Columbia, S.C., and a daughter, Carolyn Ermlick of Strongsville, Ohio. Their grandchildren are Melissa and Andrew Ermlick and Sarah and Keith Mearns.

CLUB BRIEFS

Artists Plan Show, Sale

The Waterway Art Assoc. will hold its annual show and sale Sat., May 28, from 10 a.m. until 4 p.m. on the Sea Trail Plantation Land also used for the N.C. Oyster Festival.

Painters interested in participating should call Bonnie Dempsey, 579-9299, or Barbara Fleri, 579-4331, for more information.

Virginia "Bunny" Lauzon, a local artist, will judge entries on May 21 at the Seaside United Methodist Church.

The association's regular monthly meeting will take place at the Sunday Beach Fire Station on Wednesday, April 20.

Members and other interested people are invited to bring their lunch for shared time starting at 12:30 p.m., according to Shirley Campbell, spokesman. The business meeting will begin at 1:30 p.m.

At 2, Jean Jones, an art instructor from Southport's Franklin Square Gallery, will demonstrate the use of ink collage on rice paper. For more information, call Patti Matheny at 579-1705.

Auxiliarists' Gift

The Ladies Auxiliary of VFW Post 8866 of Holden Beach recently presented Supply Elementary School with "Lite-a-Tyke" safety patches for children in kindergarten and grades 1 and 2.

The patches are reflective stickers that can be attached to children's book bags or jackets. Children wearing clothing or book bags with the reflectors will be more visible to motorists in the dark.

The patches were presented to Dr. Carolyn Williams, principal, by Bertie Callan, safety chairman of the auxiliary.

NARFE Meetings

Two local chapter of the National Association of Retired Federal Employees (NARFE) plan April meetings.

The Intracoastal Chapter 2266 will meet at the VFW, 900 Carter Road in Calabash, on Apr. 5 at 10 a.m.

Members should note the change in location of the meeting place.

The Brunswick County Chapter will hold its monthly meeting at the Sand Fiddler Restaurant, Southport, on Tuesday, April 12 at noon.

Joseph Broyles, service officer, will talk about writing letters to senators and congressmen about benefits and health care.

NARFE members are open to the public. Membership is available to all federal retirees and federal employees with at least five years' service.

United Way Publishes New Directory

The Cape Fear Area United Way's First Call for Help Program has completed its new community resources directory.

The directory contains more than 700 listings of human service agencies in Brunswick, New Hanover and Pender counties and includes information on handicapped access, eligibility guidelines, fees, length on waiting list, methods of intake and contact persons.

The listings are outlined in both alphabetical and subject indexes and contains two new sections listing support groups and toll-free numbers.

The directories cost $15 each if picked up from the Cape Fear United Way office at 255 North Front St., Wilmington, or $20 if shipped.

For more information, call (910) 251-5030.

Hospice Seeks Donations For Sale

The Brunswick County office of Lower Cape Fear Hospice is soliciting donations for its third annual fundraising yard sale, scheduled for the first weekend in May.

"Last year's yard sale was a big success," said Laney Blanton, local Cape Fear Hospice spokesman. "We raised approximately $6,000 to help our indigent patients in Brunswick County."

In addition to donated items, cash donations and baked goods are being sought; a bake sale will be held in conjunction with the yard sale.

Those who have large items to donate can arrange for pick-up by Hospice volunteers.

Items needed include furniture, household items and clean clothing, preferably on hangers.

For more information, call Laney Blanton at 754-5356 or 1-800-735-6205.

Tea, coffee or a soft drink will be included. Dinners will cost $4 each. Combination plates with fish and barbecue will cost 50 cents extra. There also will be cakes and crafts for sale.

Habitat Work Getting Under Way

Brunswick County's Habitat for Humanity board of directors will meet Tuesday, April 5, at 7 p.m. in the multi-purpose room of Brunswick Community College.

"It is very important for anyone interested in getting Habitat for Humanity off the ground in Brunswick County to be at this meeting," said Jack Scarborough, chairman. "We must have an active board of directors, and all committees must be active to be affiliated with Habitat International. We cannot operate—build a house—until we are affiliated."

Scarborough said contributions to the cause have been good, "and we have commitments of substantial donations after we are affiliated."

The South Brunswick Islands

Board of Realtors and Home Builders Association have planned projects to benefit Habitat for Humanity, and the Board of Realtors has set a target date of April 30 to have a building lot available to the group, he added.
