

Calabash Man Gets 8 Years For Break-In, Forgeries

A 36-year-old Calabash man was sentenced to eight years in prison last week after pleading guilty in Brunswick County District Court to one charge of breaking and entering and three counts of common law forgery.

Dennis Gwendell Hines of Marlowtown Road was charged with six counts of felony forgery and one count of felonious breaking and entering. He agreed to plead guilty to four misdemeanor charges as part of a plea bargain in which two of the forgery charges were voluntarily dismissed.

Judge Jerry Jolly gave Hines four consecutive two-year sentences. He was given credit for 83 days he spent in jail awaiting trial.

TAME YOUR TELEPHONE

WITH CALLER ID

You're waiting for that special call—your buddy to tell you what time the foursome tees off tomorrow morning—and every time the phone rings you wonder "is that him?"

So you answer the phone. And it isn't him. It's another solicitation call. It tees you off, but you politely tell them you're not interested and hang up. And you wonder whether you missed your buddy's call. With CALLER ID, calling parties, are no longer a mystery. You can see who's calling before you answer the phone. CALLER ID displays the telephone number of the calling party on a special display unit attached to your phone. You can decide which calls to answer.

So when you're waiting for that special call, don't let all those other calls tie up your telephone. With CALLER ID, you can see when your buddy's call comes in and avoid those sales calls, solicitations and bill collectors.
