

May 21 Date Set

Mr. and Mrs. V.W. Simmons Jr. of Calabash have announced the forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Danette, to Stephen Gates, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Gates of Ash. The wedding is planned for May 21 at 2 p.m. at Beulah Baptist Church. Friends and relatives of the couple are invited.

Cyclists, Sponsors Sought For St. Jude Fund-Raiser

West Brunswick High School's HOSA chapter is looking for sponsors and bicyclists of all ages for its St. Jude Bike-A-Thon Saturday, April 23.

The fund-raising ride will begin behind Brunswick Electric Membership Corp. on Village Road at 2:45 p.m.

Bicyclists need sponsors who commit to contributing a certain dollar amount per mile traveled.

Sponsor sheets are available from any Health Occupations students, the local school office or chapter sponsor Jeanette Mintz at West Brunswick.

All proceeds will benefit St. Jude Children's Hospital in Memphis, Tenn. The hospital is a unique institution where researchers and physicians work side-by-side to battle catastrophic diseases that afflict children. St. Jude is non-sectarian, interracial and covers all costs of care for patients beyond those reimbursed by insurance.

For more information contact Mintz at the school, 754-4338.

Fourth Fest Pageant Seeking Contestants

The N.C. Fourth of July Pageant Festival Committee is seeking participants in the 1994 Tiny, Little and Junior Miss North Carolina Fourth of July pageants.

Tiny Miss 4 and 5-year-olds will compete in party dress and group interview.

Little Miss, ages 6-8, will compete in party dress, streetwear and private interview.

Junior Miss, a new division this year, will include girls 9 through 12, who will compete in eveningwear, talent and private interview.

The pageant will be held June 11 at Supply Elementary School. Queens chosen in each age group will reign over the N.C. Fourth of July festivities July 2-4.

The 1994 N.C. Fourth of July Pageant is an official event sponsored by the N.C. Fourth of July Festival Committee.

For more information, call Pam Tyner at 457-1420 or Angie Taylor at 842-4701.

Blue Crab Fest Set May 14-15

The Little River Chamber of Commerce and the Blue Crab Festival Committee will sponsor the 13th annual Blue Crab Festival May 14 and 15 on the waterfront in Little River, S.C., just south of Calabash.

This year's festival will feature more than 125 arts and crafts exhibitors and 25 food vendors. There will be special children's area with animals, puppets, clowns, magicians and games, as well as the popular "Space Walk" and daily activities targeting children.

Continuous entertainment will include bluegrass, jazz, gospel and country bands.

Admission at the gate will be $3 for adults and $1 for children. Discounted advance tickets will be available at all Grand Strand area Anchor Banks, Southern National Bank in Little River and all Grand Strand area chambers of commerce until May 13.

Free parking and trolley shuttle service will be offered at 15-minute intervals from Anchor Bank and Southern National Bank.

The event takes place from 10 a.m. until 6 p.m. both days.

Lovely Bonnet Models
