

Leland Man Gets Four Years For Two Mobile Home Break-ins

A Leland man spent his 19th birthday in prison Tuesday after being sentenced in Brunswick County District Court last week to four years in prison for breaking into two mobile homes.

Ronald Mitchell of Old Lanvale Road was originally charged with two counts each of felonious breaking and entering and larceny. He was allowed to plead guilty to two charges of misdemeanor breaking and entering as part of a plea bargain.

Judge Jerry Jolly sentenced Mitchell to two years in prison for each count. The sentences are to run consecutively.
