West Grabs First Place In Waccamaw Golf Race

West Brunswick took over sole possession of first place in the Waccamaw Conference high school golf standings Monday with a sizzling team score of 302 at Land O' Lakes Golf Club near Whiteville.

Jeremy Grainger fired an even-par 72 to lead the Trojans. Todd Wilson and Juana Jaramillo posted rounds of 75 for West Brunswick, which entered the match tied for first with South Brunswick.

The Cougars, led by Jason Shew's 78 and Mike Kennedy's 79, placed second Monday with a team score of 317.

West Brunswick leads South Brunswick by 15 strokes heading into the final conference match of the season next Monday at Bald Head Island.

Other scores Monday were as follows: Whiteville, 342; West Columbus, 352; Pender, 361; and East Columbus, 373.

South Columbus had one golfer disqualified for hitting a practice shot during the match. As a result, the Stallions did not have enough players to post a team score.

In a makeup match last Wednesday at Fox Squirrel Country Club, South Brunswick took first with a team score of 324. Kevin McKeithan, Kennedy and Jeremy May each posted rounds of 80 to lead the Cougars.

South Columbus finished second with 353 and was followed by Pender with 361, Whiteville with 373, West Columbus with 380 and East Columbus with 435. West Brunswick did not play, but it did not affect the overall standings.

In last Monday's match at Brick Landing Plantation, South Brunswick led the pack with a score of 324.

West Brunswick was second with 333, followed by Whiteville with 358, South Columbus with 368, Pender with 371, East Columbus with 413 and West Columbus with 424.

McKeithan led the Cougars with a 79, and Thomas Butler carded West Brunswick's best round with a 79.
