

Caldwell-Leonard Vows Exchanged In Claremont

Tina Marie Caldwell of Chapel Hill became the bride of James Mallary Leonard of Raleigh in a 3 p.m. ceremony Saturday, May 21, at St. Mark's Lutheran Church, Claremont, officiated by the Rev. David P. Nelson and the Rev. Jesse Bentley.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie A. Caldwell of Claremont. She is a graduate of Bunker Hill High School and of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, where she earned the bachelor's degree in clinical laboratory science on May 15.

The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Mallary B. Leonard of Bay Road, Shallotte. He is a graduate of West Brunswick High School and N.C. State University, where he earned the bachelor of science degree in textile chemistry.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a formal gown with fitted bodice, scoop neckline, drop waist and long fitted sleeves designed in white corded Venice lace accented with pearls and iridescent sequins. The full skirt of white satin was adorned with a bow at the waist. Scalloped edging of corded Venice lace dotted with pearls flowed into a semi-cathedral train.

She wore a headpiece of matching lace and pearls that fell into a fingertip veil of silk illusion. She carried a cascade of white and light peach roses with white lilies and freesia, accented with ivy and ferns.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Michael R. Lemons of Newton, the bride's sister. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Robert L. Rouse of Raleigh, aunt of the groom; Anna K. Bolick of Couover and Dawn L. Eckerd of Claremont.

They wore dresses with black satin fitted bodices, drop waists with keyhole backs and floor-length skirts of white tulle. They carried cascades of peach gerbers, ivory alstromeria, variegated purple miniature carnations and purple wax flower, accented with larkspur and white Queen Anne's lace.

The groom's father served as best man. Ushers were Lloyd E. Milliken of Shallotte, the groom's brother-in-law; Robert L. Rouse of Raleigh, the groom's uncle; and Michael R. Lemons of Newton.

Wedding music was provided by Mrs. Craig Sigmon, soloist, and Tim Warren, organist.

The bride's parents hosted a reception in the church fellowship hall. Hostesses were Mrs. Dennis Lyerly and Susan Keed.
