PAMLICO COUNTY LIBRARY ACTIVITIES

BAYBORO
Wednesday, September 14, 3 pm - Children's Story Hour K-6 - Movie: "The Gitterball". An alien spaceship piloted by a small silver ball crashes on earth. Storytelling by Kay Blount.
Thursday, September 15, 3 pm - Children's Story Hour Preschoolers - Storytelling and a movie, "Mickey's Trailer". Mickey, Donald and Goofy go for a carefree holiday in Mickey's trailer with Goofy driving. Carefree that is, until Goofy leaves the car driverless on a winding mountain road. Animated.
Wednesday, September 21, 3 pm - Children's Story Hour K-6

- Movie "Cookie Goes to the Hospital". Ida and Noel's loyalty is put to the test when their club mate, Cookie, is taken to the hospital with appendicitis. Storytelling by Kay Blount.

Thursday, September 22, 3 pm - Children's Story Hour for Preschoolers - Movie "The Girl with ESP". Being the only average member in a family of overachievers is no fun for Laura. Even her psychic powers can't help Laura to win the approval of her brilliant family. She finally learns that personal worth comes from more than talent, and she earns their love simply by being herself. Storytelling by Mary Ann Delamar.

HISTORICAL FAIR

The Beaufort County Historical Society will sponsor a Historical Fair on Saturday, September 17. The event will take place at the Haven's Wharf Warehouse, located on the waterfront of the Pamlico River, just to the right of the Pamlico River Bridge (US Highway 17) on West Main Street in Washington, NC. "Come as you are", or dress in period costume if you wish. George Washington will be among distinguished guests present.
