MOTHERS START "CAMP AT HOME" FOR CHILDREN

(Continued from Page One) "In order to make their days really purposeful a regular schedule of hours was made and followed, divided like this:

- 8:00 Breakfast
- 9:00 Inspection
- 9:30 Get-together
- 10:00-11:30 Activity
- 11:30 Swimming
- 12:30 Dinner at home or outside
- 1:00-2:00 Rest hour at home
- 2:30-4:00 Activity
- 4:30 Free games
- 5:00 Home

"Because the success of their undertaking depended so much upon them, the children responded to the responsibility that was given to them. They gained poise and self-confidence; they learned to work and play as a group, and to share chores in order to make their playtime possible. The children in this group came to see their mothers in a new light—as playfellows, with new and interesting abilities. The mothers themselves discovered all sorts of forgotten talents, and picked up lots of new ones."

"The Distinguished and Increasingly Popular NEWS-WEEK"

—The Churchman

NEWS-WEEK is a weekly newspaper published in the form of a magazine; a news-magazine. It operates like a great daily newspaper; it is served by more than five thousand correspondents in the strategic news-centers of the world; its tele-typers are fed twenty hours a day by radio, by cable, by wire.

Yet it functions in a way difficult in the daily presentation of news; it incorporates in its treatment of events a background of fact possible only through remorseless research on immeasurable fronts; the pictorial fact complements its presentation.

Daily newspapers keep news-readers abreast of the events of the moment; that is the peculiar duty of the newspaper. Busy news readers read NEWS-WEEK to gain a brief, compact understanding of all the week's news they need to know.
